VERDICT IN JOHN RUSSELL CASE

Suit for $1,560 Results in a Verdict for $675—Administrator Allowed to Settle for Coal Miner's Death. Minor Matters in Court.

Lisbon, February 15.—(Special)—The motion to quash the indictment for unlawful coercion against D. S. Brookman, manager of the Wellsville sheet mill, on account of improper endorsement by the foreman of the grand jury, was overruled by Judge Hole yesterday.

The contention of Brookman's attorneys was that the foreman must sign words printed on the back of the bill of indictment, to the effect that the bill was prepared after sworn testimony had been presented at the request of the prosecutor. While it might be considered secure if the foreman should sign at this place, still it has never been the custom with Columbian county grand jury foremen to do so.

It is not thought that Brookman's attorneys expected the indictment to be quashed on this account. Ex-Judge P. M. Smith, when asked Thursday evening if the Brookman case had come up, smiled and remarked: "Oh! well, the main question has not been raised, anyhow."

A motion filed by Attorney Metzger to quash the indictment against John B. Smith, of Salem, for defrauding a hotel keeper, was overruled. Metzger had raised the same question in the Brookman case.

It is probable the Brookman case will be argued week after next.

J. W. Fenheiser, administrator of the estate of William T. Fenheiser, has petitioned the probate court to be allowed to settle for $550 with J. B. McNab for wrongfully causing the death of W. F. Fenheiser, who was killed in McNab's coal shaft. The administrator's request was granted.

Two divorce suits are reported settled and dismissed at the plaintiffs' cost. In both cases the charge was unfaithfulness. The actions were from East Liverpool and were filed by William H. Prout against Emma Prout and by Ernestine Giethen against August Giethen.

The sale of real estate in the case of William C. McIntosh versus William McBane, administrator of the McGillivray estate, has been confirmed. The sale was made to George H. Owen for $4,245.

William Swartz, guardian of John Russell, yesterday got a verdict against Alexander McBane, administrator of the estate of Christina McGillivray, late of East Liverpool, for $675.

John Russell, now 17 years old, for 78 months lived at the McGillivray home. The claim was that Russell was entitled to $20 a month above his board for labor on the farm. The entire claim was $1,560.

The suit brought by Alexander Forbes and James W. Dennis, of Wellsville, against Edward G. Whitacre has been settled and costs paid. Suit was brought for a balance due for the erection of a building in Wellsville.

ROSE FAVORS IT

Thinks the Move to Organize an Ohio Valley Baseball League Is the Proper Thing.

J. J. Rose, one of the managers of the local baseball team, stated today that while he had not yet received any proposition from Michael Hobright relative to the proposed Ohio Valley baseball league, he considered that it would be a wise move for the East Liverpool team to join it.

"It is a settled question in my mind," said Mr. Rose, "that greater interest can be worked up in local baseball circles if our team belonged to a league than by playing independently. This fact has been demonstrated in other cities, and I would be glad to arrange with Mr. Hobright to have East Liverpool represented in his proposed league if the other cities and towns he is now figuring with go into it."

The team at Steubenville, which has been organized for next season, promises to be a much stronger one than has ever before represented that city, while Mingo has also arranged for a good team. Both of these clubs will be included in the new league.

WORKHOUSE CONTRACT

RECEIVED FROM CLEVELAND BY MAYOR DAVIDSON.

It Will Be Submitted to Council, When, It Is Thought, a Deal Will Be Closed.

Mr. Davidson is in receipt of a contract blank from the management of the Cleveland workhouse in which the agreement is made to board prisoners sent to that institution from this city for 35 cents per day, or five cents less than is now charged by the Canton workhouse officials.

The contract which the city now has with the Canton workhouse expires March 1. In the meantime Mayor Davidson proposes to submit the contract received from Cleveland to the city council, when it is believed, arrangements will be made for the sending of prisoners to Cleveland instead of Canton.

It is not only because of the lesser expense that the change is desired, but mainly because the Canton institution is becoming more like a pleasure resort than an institution for correction. Tramps try to be sent there and many of the culprits sent from this city come home telling how well they enjoyed their sojourn. The Cleveland workhouse gives all the victims sent there the full worth of their money.

WALKED FOR 29 DAYS

Two Germans Applied for Lodging at the Jail Were Nearly Starved.

Two young Germans, giving the names of Edwin Schmidt and John Grin, both of whom recently arrived in this country and neither of whom can speak English, applied at the city jail last night for lodging. Otto Schmidtauer was called in and conversed with the travelers, who told him they were stonemasons and looking for work.

Both were well dressed and far above the average in intelligence. They said they had landed in New York 29 days ago and claimed they had walked the entire distance from New York to this city. They had a little money when starting on their long tramp, but their funds gave out before they reached Pittsburg and both men claimed they had not eaten a meal for two days.

Schmidtauer took the travelers to supper and the police were so impressed with the men's good manners and honest demeanor they took up a collection for them. They slept in the jail and started out this morning to look for a job.

BRIGANDS' CONDITIONS

After Getting the Stone Ransom Will Allow Them to Escape.

Washington, Feb. 15.—(Special)—The state department today received a cable message confirming the report that the ransom money for the release of Miss Stone had been paid.

The department, however, has not been advised when the release will occur, but it is understood that the brigands made a condition that they shall have a period of one week, which makes sure of their retreat to the mountains before the prisoner is delivered.

Knows What He Is Talking About. This week's issue of the Sporting Life says: "Our East Liverpool correspondent, W. A. Calhoun, strongly recommends two local players, Outfielder Percy Rising and Dimmer Wheatley, pitcher and general player, as worthy of a trial by some good minor league club. Mr. Calhoun's judgment of ball players is entitled to much respect."

PROPOSED ROAD DOWN THE RIVER GOODWIN MATTER HAS BEEN SETTLED

A Pennsylvania Traction Company Intends to Reach Smith's Ferry.

PITTSBURG-WHEELING LINE MEETINGS OF IMPORTANCE

The Aim of Its Promoters—Monaca, Beaver & Smith's Ferry Electric Railway Chartered at Harrisburg. Former Project of the Kind.

A charter has been granted at Harrisburg to the Monaca, Beaver & Smith's Ferry Electric Railway company which has considerable importance attached to it. The new line is really an extension or will be, of the Coraopolis & Monaca Electric Railway company's line from its terminus at Monaca to Smith's Ferry, at the state line. At that point it is proposed to connect with the East Liverpool lines, and complete a through line from Pittsburg to Wheeling. The new line will pass through Vanport. The incorporators include Joseph A. West, Beaver; Henry C. Fry, Rochester; H. W. Klein and E. E. Klein, Allegheny; J. Frank Peffer and William Beach, Pittsburg.

It will be remembered that several years ago rights of way were secured from Vanport to a point near Smith's Ferry, by a company which proposed to build an electric line from Vanport to Smith's Ferry but this line would have connected with the Beaver Traction company lines had it been built. The company applied for and was granted a charter under the laws of Pennsylvania, but nothing ever became of the project.

Aside from the construction of this new line from Monaca to Smith's Ferry, it is also proposed by this company to build a new bridge over the Ohio river from Rochester to Monaca over which cars of the new company will pass.

It has been known here for some time that the East Liverpool Railway company proposes to extend its line to Smith's Ferry, but work on this extension has been delayed on account of the severe cold weather. The local companies secured right of way for practically the entire distance, and after the local line is completed to the eastern end of Smith's Ferry, a connection will be made with the proposed road. The portion between the west end of Wellsville and Empire will then be the only part of the line lacking to connect Pittsburg and Wheeling.

Asks for Alimony. Ellen C. Greenamyer, of Sebring, has filed suit for alimony against William H. Greenamyer. The wife makes some sensational charges in the petition. An injunction was allowed by Judge Robinson, of Youngstown, without bond, restraining the defendant from disposing of certain real estate until the case is heard.

Foden-Crofts. Robert George Crofts, of Campus, O., and Miss Anna Foden, of this city, were married yesterday noon at the bride's home on Pleasant Heights by Rev. W. H. Gladden. A fine dinner was served after the ceremony.

In search of his father, whom he has not seen for almost four years, Harry Race, aged 16 years, arrived here from Minerva Thursday evening, only to find that his parent is a fugitive from justice, having escaped several months ago from the Canton workhouse, where he was sent by the mayor for an inhuman crime.

The boy has had a remarkable experience during his short life. When but a mere baby his mother died and he was adopted by a family living at Bellaire. Tiring of his new home, young Race ran away about three years ago, coming to this city, but later being taken in charge by the authorities and sent to the Fairmount children's home near Alliance.

After remaining at that institution but a few months the boy ran away, but was soon located and taken back the second time. When another opportunity was afforded the dissatisfied lad again ran off, making his way to Minerva, where he hired to work for a farmer.

While almost all of the other locals have a 1 per cent secretary, this organization has never had a man to fill this position until this time. At the last meeting the position was given to Columbus Sayers, one of the most prominent members of the union, and he entered upon his duties immediately. LEETONIA GIRL COMMITTED SUICIDE IN PITTSBURG.

Took Poison on Thursday And Died at the Hospital — 24 Years Old.

Mary Haley, of Leetonia, lies dead at the Pittsburgh morgue as a result of a dose of creoline, taken with suicidal intent at 102 Third avenue on Thursday morning. The girl lived at the house under the name of Elsie Lowrie. She died in the Homeopathic hospital.

A dispatch from Salem says she was 24 years old, the daughter of Mrs. Ellen Haley, of Leetonia. She came to Salem five years ago, when she was employed by Chan Lun, Chinese laundryman. She made her home and worked at the laundry until three months ago, when she left for Pittsburgh. She had figured in police court on several occasions.

FAREWELL SERVICES

By Messrs. Biederwolf And Maxwell Tomorrow—Excellent Results of the Meetings.

The special services at the First Presbyterian church close tomorrow. Rev. Mr. Biederwolf yesterday at 2:30 delivered an excellent address on the life and experience of Lot. He showed the danger of losing the best of life by compromising with evil.

In the evening he took for his texts John 10:10 and 5:40, and declared abundant, peaceful, joyful, powerful and eternal life is for all who will come to Christ. Prof. Maxwell added much to the services by his beautiful solos.

The evangelists tomorrow will conduct the services at 11 a. m. and at 2:30 p. m., services for men only. Mr. Biederwolf's theme is "The White Life."

The opportunity is a good one for all the men of the city to hear this great address. There will be solos by Prof. Maxwell, a quartet and male chorus.

The farewell service will be held at 7:30 p. m. The services conducted by these men have been the means of great good to hundreds.

CANAL ABANDONMENT

Features of the Sheets Bill as Finally Presented in the House.

Columbus, Feb. 15.—(Special)—The much-discussed Sheets bill, providing for the abandonment of the Ohio canals, was introduced in the house Friday by Representative Painter, of Wood. Some changes were made. It now provides for the appointment of a commission composed of the governor, attorney general and secretary of state to conduct the sale. Provision is also made for the abolishment of the canal commission.

If the bill is passed Chief Engineer Perkins, of the state board of public works, says the legislature will be besieged for years with damage claims from owners of works which are dependent upon the canals for maintenance. In his opinion, the abandonment of the Lewiston, Licking and Summit reservoirs would yield very little valuable farm land, and would deprive the public of attractive bodies of water, which, with their margins, would make splendid parks. The constitutional provision, he thinks, will stand in the way of abolishing the state board of public works.

The boy was afraid that the police would send him back to the children's home, but instead of so doing they promised they would get him a job.

The lad is bright and willing to work at anything and is deserving of sympathy.

William Race is the father of the homeless lad. He was fined $50 and costs on April 29, 1901, by Mayor Davidson and sentenced to serve the penalty in the Canton workhouse. A few months after his incarceration he escaped and has never since been seen or heard of by the workhouse officials.

Four at the Altar. There was a large congregation at the M. E. church last night, to hear Rev. Dr. Crawford preach upon "Abiding in Christ." The sermon was excellent. Mrs. Phyllis and Mrs. Haines sang very beautifully. There were four persons at the altar and the car. This morning each paid $5.60. The men had filled up on Wellsville whisky before they started this way.

The $6,000 Station Will Occupy the Site Formerly Proposed.

A CONFERENCE WAS HELD

Between Railway Officials and Councilmen and Agreement Reached.

OTHER IMPROVEMENTS ALSO

Are Promised By the C. & P. Management—Further Details Are to Be Arranged at a Meeting to Be Held Sometime Next Week.

A conference which was held at the freight depot last evening by Councilman R. J. Marshall and W. B. Thomas and W. B. Wood, superintendent of maintenance of way of the C. & P. railway, and Freight Agent George Wassman, resulted in a confirmation of the exclusive report published some time ago in the News Review to the effect that a $6,000 depot is to be built by the railroad company in the East End.

Councilman Heddleston and Solicitor Gaston, both of whom took part in the former conference, were unable to be present at the meeting last night and another is to be held some time next week when the plans for the new depot will be presented for approval. The plans have already been drawn up by Mr. Wood and will first have to be approved by the higher railway officials before they are submitted to the councilmen.

The site for the new depot has been definitely decided on and will be built where the unfinished one now stands, across the railroad from the National pottery. Some objection was offered at the previous conference to the proposed site, but it seems to be the general desire of East End people that the new station be built there.

In addition to the new depot it was definitely agreed by the railway officials to make other improvements, an important one of which is to be an overhead bridge at Ralston's crossing.

At next week's meeting all of the proposed changes will be definitely settled. Mr. Wood shows an inclination to be fair and lenient, and it is the belief of those of the council who have conferred with him that he will take speedy action to bring about the improvements promised.

MACCABEES' SOCIAL

An Enjoyable Affair—Handsome Prizes for the Lucky Ones.

Carrie B Hive No. 328, L. O. T. M., gave a very pleasant social last night at the rooms in the Oyster block. A beautiful ring, an opal with 14 diamonds, was given away to Miss Maud Livesley, who happened to get the lucky number. A leather cushion was also changed off and Mr. Stillwell was the winner.

Dainty refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in. Fifty couples were in attendance and it is said about $60 was netted. The affair was most enjoyable.

He found it, and in so doing set fire to the coal house and fence in the front yard. The flames were extinguished by the fire department.

WELLSVILLE LIQUOR

Got Two Salineville Men in Trouble Here—Both Fined By the Mayor.

Officers Mahoney and Saulsberry arrested Nick Conkle and William Lindsay, of Salineville, yesterday for being drunk and disorderly in a street car. This morning each paid $5.60. The men had filled up on Wellsville whisky before they started this way.

GOODWIN MATTER HAS BEEN SETTLED

Concessions Made After Brotherhood Officials Supported Jigermen's Position.

DEAD AT THE MORGUE

Held By Various Locals of the City. Questions of Moment to Be Considered at the Next National Convention—Pottery Notes.

The controversy at the Goodwin pottery, where the jigermen went out last Saturday because the firm refused to furnish setters, has been settled. Henry Goodwin at first absolutely refused to grant the concession, which, according to the late agreement, it was clearly his duty to do. The jigermen appealed to the Brotherhood officials and were sustained. This failed to satisfy Mr. Goodwin, and he sought the opinion of the manufacturers' representatives upon the conference committee, and only after these gentlemen had ruled against him, and after an idleness in almost every department of nearly a week, the workmen were asked to resume this morning.

The dispute has been an unfortunate affair all around, particularly so for the firm, as the plant has been practically closed for several days.

The attendance at the meeting of No. 25, packers, last night, was the largest in the history of the organization, and there was no lack of enthusiasm. It was learned from reports of the shop committees that No. 25 now has absolute control of the entire town, so far as the packing trade is concerned. A general discussion of the representation to the national convention resulted in a decision to send but two delegates from the local. While there is no law covering the question, it has been the custom for the convention to permit whatever number of delegates the organizations see fit to send, to cast the full vote of the local. No. 25, being scarcely six months old has decided upon this plan purely as a matter of economy.

The machinery that is being made in this city for D. E. McNicol, to be shipped to his clay mines in South Carolina, is about completed and within two weeks it will be ready for shipment. The clay obtained by Mr. McNicol in the south is said to be equal, if not better than the English, and after the new mine is opened, the clay will be pressed and sent to this city and Wellsville to be made over and used in the McNicol and Smith & McNicol potteries at Wellsville. The new machinery is costing several hundred dollars and will be ready for shipment to the south not later than next week. During the past two weeks over 200 presses of clay have been made by the clay maker at the Dresden pottery. This is a record seldom equalled by any plant the size of the Dresden in the city.

An Enjoyable Affair—Handsome Prizes for the Lucky Ones.

Carrie B Hive No. 328, L. O. T. M., gave a very pleasant social last night at the rooms in the Oyster block. A beautiful ring, an opal with 14 diamonds, was given away to Miss Maud Livesley, who happened to get the lucky number. A leather cushion was also changed off and Mr. Stillwell was the winner.

Dainty refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in. Fifty couples were in attendance and it is said about $60 was netted. The affair was most enjoyable.

JUDGE HOLE OVERRULES THE MOTION TO QUASH

The Brookman Indictment Still Stands in Spite of the Alleged Defect.

DIVORCE SUITS SETTLED

Two From East Liverpool Have Been Dismissed at Cost of Plaintiffs.

VERDICT IN JOHN RUSSELL CASE

Suit for $1,560 Results in a Verdict for $675—Administrator Allowed to Settle for Coal Miner's Death. Minor Matters in Court.

Lisbon, February 15.—(Special)—

The motion to quash the indictment for unlawful coercion against D. S. Brookman, manager of the Wellsville sheet mill, on account of improper endorsement by the foreman of the grand jury, was overruled by Judge Hole yesterday.

The contention of Brookman's attorneys was that the foreman must sign words printed on the back of the bill of indictment, to the effect that the bill was prepared after sworn testimony had been presented at the request of the prosecutor. While it might be considered secure if the foreman should sign at this place, still it has never been the custom with Columbian county grand jury foremen to do so.

It is not thought that Brookman's attorneys expected the indictment to be quashed on this account. Ex-Judge P. M. Smith, when asked Thursday evening if the Brookman case had come up, smiled and remarked: "Oh! well, the main question has not been raised, anyhow."

A motion filed by Attorney Metzger to quash the indictment against John B. Smith, of Salem, for defrauding a hotel keeper, was overruled. Metzger had raised the same question in the Brookman case.

It is probable the Brookman case will be argued week after next.

J. W. Fenheiser, administrator of the estate of William T. Fenheiser, has petitioned the probate court to be allowed to settle for $550 with J. B. McNab for wrongfully causing the death of W. F. Fenheiser, who was killed in McNab's coal shaft. The administrator's request was granted.

Two divorce suits are reported settled and dismissed at the plaintiffs' cost. In both cases the charge was unfaithfulness. The actions were from East Liverpool and were filed by William H. Prout against Emma Prout and by Ernestine Giehlein against August Giehlein.

The sale of real estate in the case of William C. McIntosh versus William McBane, administrator of the McGillivray estate, has been confirmed. The sale was made to George H. Owen for $4,245.

William Swartz, guardian of John Russell, yesterday got a verdict against Alexander McBane, administrator of the estate of Christina McGillivray, late of East Liverpool, for $675.

John Russell, now 17 years old, for 78 months lived at the McGillivray home. The claim was that Russell was entitled to $20 a month above his board for labor on the farm. The entire claim was $1,560.

The suit brought by Alexander Forbes and James W. Dennis, of Wellsville, against Edward G. Whittier has been settled and costs paid. Suit was brought for a balance due for the erection of a building in Wellsville.

ROSE FAVORS IT

Thinks the Move to Organize an Ohio Valley Baseball League Is the Proper Thing.

J. J. Rose, one of the managers of the local baseball team, stated today that while he had not yet received any proposition from Michael Hobright relative to the proposed Ohio Valley baseball league, he considered that it would be a wise move for the East Liverpool team to join it.

"It is a settled question in my mind," said Mr. Rose, "that greater interest much respect."

Knows What He Is Talking About.

This week's issue of the Sporting Life says: "Our East Liverpool correspondent, W. A. Calhoun, strongly recommends two local players. Outfielder Percy Rising and Dimmer Wheatley, pitcher and general player, as worthy of a trial by some good minor league club. Mr. Calhoun's judgment of ball players is entitled to superintendent he would be taken back, young Race kept in close seclusion until last Wednesday, when he was again taken with a desire to see his father. Without making known his intentions he quietly left the farm and started for this city, arriving here Thursday evening.

It was a severe blow to the lad to learn of his parent's downfall, and finding himself without a home, called at the mayor's office last evening where he told the story of his experiences since first being taken away from his father and mother and asked the officers to assist him in getting a position in one of the potteries.

The boy was afraid that the police would send him back to the children's home, but instead of so doing they promised they would get him a job. The lad is bright and willing to work at anything and is deserving of sympathy.

William Race is the father of the homeless lad. He was fined $50 and costs on April 29, 1901, by Mayor Davidson and sentenced to serve the penalty in the Canton workhouse. A few months after his incarceration he escaped and has never since been seen or head of by the workhouse officials.

DEAD AT THE MORGUE

LEETONIA GIRL COMMITTED SUICIDE IN PITTSBURG.

Took Poison on Thursday And Died at the Hospital—24 Years Old.

Mary Haley, of Leetonia, lies dead at the Pittsburgh morgue as a result of a dose of creosote, taken with suicidal intent at 102 Third avenue on Thursday morning. The girl lived at the house under the name of Elsie Lowrie. She died in the Homeopathic hospital.

A dispatch from Salem says she was 24 years old, the daughter of Mrs. Ellen Haley, of Leetonia. She came to Salem five years ago, when she was employed by Chan Lin, Chinese laundryman. She made her home and worked at the laundry until three months ago, when she left for Pittsburgh. She had figured in police court on several occasions.

FAREWELL SERVICES

By Messrs. Biederwolf And Maxwell Tomorrow—Excellent Results of the Meetings.

The special services at the First Presbyterian church close tomorrow. Rev. Mr. Biederwolf yesterday at 2:30 delivered an excellent address on the life and experience of Lot. He showed the danger of losing the best of life by compromising with evil.

In the evening he took for his texts John 10:10 and 5:40, and declared abundant, peaceful, joyful, powerful and eternal life is for all who will come to Christ. Prof. Maxwell added much to the services by his beautiful solos.

The evangelists tomorrow will conduct the services at 11 a. m. and at 2:30 p. m., services for men only. Mr. Biederwolf's theme is "The White Life."

The opportunity is a good one for all the men of the city to hear this great address. There will be solos by Prof. Maxwell, a quartet and male chorus.

CANAL ABANDONMENT

Features of the Sheets Bill as Finally Presented in the House.

Columbus, Feb. 15.—(Special)—The much-discussed Sheets bill, providing for the abandonment of the Ohio canals, was introduced in the house Friday by Representative Painter of Wood. Some changes were made. It now provides for the appointment of a commission composed of the governor, attorney general and secretary of state to conduct the sale. Provision is also made for the abolishment of the canal commission.

If the bill is passed Chief Engineer Perkins, of the state board of public works, says the legislature will be besieged for years with damage claims from owners of works which are dependent upon the canals for maintenance. In his opinion, the abandonment of the Lewiston, Licking and Summit reservoirs would yield very little valuable farm land, and would deprive the public of attractive bodies of water, which, with their margins, would make splendid parks. The constitutional provision, he thinks, will stand in the way of abolishing the state board of public works.

Four at the Altar.

There was a large congregation at the M. E. church last night, to hear Rev. Dr. Crawford preach upon "Abiding in Christ." The sermon was excellent. Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Haines sang very beautifully. There were four persons at the altar and the interest is still great. There will be services tonight as usual.

PLANS ARE NOW PREPARED FOR NEW EAST END DEPOT

The $6,000 Station Will Occupy the Site Formerly Proposed.

A CONFERENCE WAS HELD

Between Railway Officials and Councilmen and Agreement Reached.

OTHER IMPROVEMENTS ALSO

Are Promised By the C. & P. Management—Further Details Are to Be Arranged at a Meeting to Be Held Sometime Next Week.

A conference which was held at the freight depot last evening by Councilman R. J. Marshall and W. B. Thomas and W. B. Wood, superintendent of maintenance of way of the C. & P. railway, and Freight Agent George Wassman, resulted in a confirmation of the exclusive report published some time ago in the News Review to the effect that a $6,000 depot is to be built by the railroad company in the East End.

Councilman Heddleston and Solicitor Gaston, both of whom took part in the former conference, were unable to be present at the meeting last night and another is to be held some time next week when the plans for the new depot will be presented for approval.

The plans have already been drawn up by Mr. Wood and will first have to be approved by the higher railway officials before they are submitted to the councilmen.

The site for the new depot has been definitely decided on and will be built where the unfinished one now stands, across the railroad from the National pottery. Some objection was offered at the previous conference to the proposed site, but it seems to be the general desire of East End people that the new station be built thereon.

In addition to the new depot it was positively agreed by the railway officials to make other improvements, an important one of which is to be an overhead bridge at Ralston's crossing.

At next week's meeting all of the proposed changes will be definitely settled. Mr. Wood shows an inclination to be fair and lenient, and it is the belief of those of the council who have conferred with him that he will take speedy action to bring about the improvements promised.

Are Being Diligently Sought By the Pennsylvania for Chester Branch Extension.

Within three weeks representatives of the real estate department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh are expected to arrive in the East End to purchase rights of way from East End people who own property in the vicinity of Shippingport. It is said the company has been offering from $100 to $150 an acre for rights of way through farms in this section, but it is likely that a higher price will be asked by these property owners. Messrs. McDole and Sample, who have charge of this work, are now stationed at Beaver, and have secured much property already.

The surveyors are still working on the proposed extension of the Chester and New Cumberland branch, and it is announced that their work will be completed within a few months.

RECEIVED OUR ASSURANCE

We Are Taking No Steps Against
Russia, In China—If Peace Is Men-
aced, In Extreme Orient, Russia
Will Protect Herself.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Russian officials view of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was communicated to the correspondent of the Associated Press, as follows:

"We accept the news of the entente with the most complete equanimity and are very happy to ascertain that England and Japan are pledged to maintain the integrity of China and the independence of Corea, two principles which Russia was the first to establish as the basis of her foreign policy in the Orient. Russia would willingly have subscribed to the agreement in the preamble. The English-Japanese say their convention has only essentially pacific aims. This makes it all the more astonishing when they speak of war and coalitions. What power they have in view we cannot say. But, in any case, if peace is menaced in the extreme Orient, Russia, for her part, will not fail to take all the measures to safeguard her interests. All Russia's conventions with Japan have aimed at the preservation of the integrity of China and the independence of Corea, and it is true that Minister Kurino came to us immediately to communicate the text of the agreement and give the most amicable assurances. We have reason to believe it is not true that America, with which we remain in perfect accord, is a silent partner in the affair. We have given America positive assurances that Russia will do nothing which will disturb the interests of America in China. We do not believe America is anxious about the situation. Furthermore, we have received satisfactory assurance that America is not taking any steps against us in China."

Groton, Mass., Feb. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., improved very rapidly yesterday, and for the first time since his illness he partook of solid food, meat being included in the diet. The Gammel and Potter boys also partook of meat.

The boys rested comfortably all day yesterday. Mrs. Gammel read aloud to them for some time and they were eager to have her continue at length. Dr. Shattuck, of Boston, has discontinued his visits, leaving Dr. Warren, of Groton, in charge. Dr. Jewett, of Boston, spends his time at the infirmary carrying out the orders of Dr. Warren.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

The Jefferson County Farmers' institute will be held at Smithfield on February 18.

George Moore, a C. & P. brakeman had his left hand mashed at Mingo while making a coupling.

Mrs. Phoebe Moore, aged 78, and Eldred G. Holiday, aged 80, both prominent residents of Cadiz, are dead.

Dr. H. F. Ford, one of the leading physicians of Wheeling, died as the result of an operation in a Wheeling hospital.

Prominent Democratic politicians of Wheeling are organizing a stock company to start a new Democratic newspaper.

J. W. Kail, the young man run over at Burgettstown Thursday by a Panhandle train, died in the hospital at Steubenville.

Work on the Panhandle traction company's electric line between Wellsburg and Wheeling has been suspended because of the cold weather.

Henry Sanborn, an old soldier and a member of the G. A. R., who served in the civil war with the 157th O. V. I., died in the Steubenville hospital. He was 70 years of age.

The old house known as the Jesse Hukill homestead in Brooke county, W. Va., was burned to the ground. A family named Simms, who occupied it, barely escaped with their lives.

William Burke, a Toronto saloon keeper, charged with selling liquor to an habitual drunkard, was acquitted in Mayor Miller's court. The case attracted great interest and was bitterly contested.

John Shultz, a Polander, aged 23, employed on the Panhandle railroad wrecking crew at Steubenville, was run over by a train and had both his legs amputated below the knees. It is thought he will recover.

BETTER CABOOSSES

Will Soon Be a Feature on the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad.

An announcement made by an official of the C. & P. company will be gratifying news to the many conductors and brakemen in the employ of that company who live in Wellsville. Cabooses of the Pennsylvania company will be built after more improved designs in the future, looking to comfort and convenience of trainmen. They will be constructed longer, have ice boxes, lockers and other conveniences that will enable trainmen to live better while on the road.

The principal feature of the new cars will be their length, the dimensions providing for ample room for all the crew. The cars are to be fitted up in more attractive style and much of the crude work which now renders the interior of the caboose very monotonous will be relieved by comparatively artistic decorations.

AMERICAN DESERTER KILLED IN FIGHT ON SAMAR.

Manila, Feb. 15.—The Panay scouts, under the command of Captain Walker, in an engagement on the island of Samar, recently, captured seven rifles and numerous bolos, killed a number of Filipinos and also killed the officer in command, who was a notorious renegade, named Winfrey, a deserter from the Forty-third regiment, whom the American troops had for months been endeavoring to capture. A man named Long, who deserted with Winfrey, is still operating with the Filipinos.

Doing Good.

A great deal of good is being done in all parts of the country by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good work, of aggravating and persistent coughs that have yielded to its soothing effects, of severe colds that have been broken up by its use, of threatened attacks of pneumonia that have been warded off and of dangerous cases of croup that it has cured. The great popularity and extensive sale of this preparation can not be a surprise to anyone who is acquainted with its good qualities. Use it when you have need of such a remedy and it will do you good. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the most severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible. If not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Charles F. Craig's, Fouts Bldg., East Liverpool, O. Get Green's special almanac.

NASAL CATARRH CURED

Pe-ru-na Cures a Case of Five Years' Standing.

Mr. Rudolph M. Patterson, Chicago, Ill.

Hon. Rudolph M. Patterson, a well-known lawyer, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following letter to The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio:

"Gentlemen—'I have been a sufferer from nasal catarrh for the past five years, and at the earnest solicitation of a friend I tried Peruna and am glad to say it has afforded a complete cure. It is with pleasure I recommend it to others.'—RUDOLPH M. PATTERSON.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of 38 West 117th street, New York City, writes:

"I can honestly recommend Peruna as a great catarrh remedy. It heals quickly and permanently.

"This is simply the whole story in a word. I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold and Peruna cured me. It is indeed a great medicine, and worthy of highest praise, for it is reliable and will never disappoint you."—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

There are two things that the whole medical profession agree about concerning catarrh. The first is that catarrh is the most prevalent and omnipresent disease to which the people in the United States are subject. All classes of people have it. Those who stay indoors much and those who go outdoors much. Working classes have it and sedentary classes have it.

The doctor finds catarrh to be his constant and ever-present foe. It complicates nearly every disease he is called upon to treat.

which all doctors agree, is that it is difficult to cure it. Local remedies may give relief but they fail to cure permanently. Sprays or snuffs amount to little or nothing except to give temporary relief.

Catarrh is frequently located in internal organs which cannot be reached by any sort of local treatment. All this is known by every physician.

To devise some systemic internal remedy which would reach catarrh at its source, to eradicate it permanently from the system—this has been the desire of the medical profession for a long time. Forty years ago Dr. Hartman confronted this problem. He believed then that he had solved it. He still believes he has solved it. He cures thousands of people annually. During all these years Peruna has been the remedy upon which he has relied.

It was at first a private prescription, afterwards manufactured expressly for him in large quantities. This remedy, Peruna, is now to be found in every drug-store and nearly every home in the land. It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

Mr. Camillus Senne, 257 West 129th street, New York, writes:

"I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat. I tried all kinds of medicine with out relief, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Peruna.

"I read of Peruna in your almanac, and wrote you for advice, which I followed. After taking one and one-half bottles of Peruna I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peruna to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal troubles."—Camillus Senne.

A course of Peruna never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peruna. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

Mr. Camillus Senne, 257 West 129th street, New York, writes:

"I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Peruna.

"I read of Peruna in your almanac, and wrote you for advice, which I followed. After taking one and one-half bottles of Peruna I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peruna to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal troubles."—Camillus Senne.

A course of Peruna never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peruna. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

AMERICA NO PARTNER

In the Anglo-Jap Treaty, So the Russian Officials Believe.

RECEIVED OUR ASSURANCE

We Are Taking No Steps Against
Russia, In China—if Peace Is Men-
aced, In Extreme Orient, Russia
Will Protect Herself.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Russian officials view of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was communicated to the correspondent of the Associated Press, as follows:

"We accept the news of the treaty with the most complete equanimity and are very happy to ascertain that England and Japan are pledged to maintain the integrity of China and the independence of Corea, two principles which Russia was the first to establish as the basis of her foreign policy in the Orient. Russia would willingly have subscribed to the agreement in the preamble. The English-Japanese say their convention has only essentially pacific aims. This makes it all the more astonishing when they speak of war and coalitions. What power they have in view we cannot say. But, in any case, if peace is menaced in the extreme Orient, Russia, for her part, will not fail to take all the measures to safeguard her interests. All Russia's conventions with Japan have aimed at the preservation of the integrity of China and the independence of Corea, and it is true that Minister Kurino came to us immediately to communicate the text of the agreement and give the most amicable assurances. We have reason to believe it is not true that America, with which we remain in perfect accord, is a silent partner in the affair. We have given America positive assurances that Russia will do nothing which will disturb the interests of America in China. We do not believe America is anxious about the situation. Furthermore, we have received satisfactory assurance that America is not taking any steps against us in China."

TEDDY, JR., IS MUCH BETTER.

He Improved Rapidly Yesterday.
Three Sick Boys Allowed to Eat Meat.

Groton, Mass., Feb. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., improved very rapidly yesterday, and for the first time since his illness he partook of solid food, meat being included in the diet. The Gammel and Potter boys also partook of meat.

The boys rested comfortably all day yesterday. Mrs. Gammel read aloud to them for some time and they were eager to have her continue at length. Dr. Shattuck, of Boston, has discontinued his visits, leaving Dr. Warren, of Groton, in charge. Dr. Jewett, of Boston, spends his time at the infirmary carrying out the orders of Dr. Warren.

At each taking of the chart the respiration, pulse and temperature of the patients were normal, and from all appearances the convalescence was uninterrupted. It is hoped that the boys will be able to sit up by Monday. Young Roosevelt's lungs are rapidly clearing, with the possibility of resolution being completed in a very few days. All the out-of-town newspaper correspondents have left Groton.

MORE MANDAMUS SUITS.

Other Actions to Increase Taxation

Cleveland, Feb. 15.—Attorney Newton D. Baker filed the papers in the other four mandamus suits against County Auditor Craig. The petitions always indicate a weak heart. They are usually preceded or followed by palpitation or fluttering, and there may be pain in left side, a smothering sensation and shortness of breath. Such a heart should be treated at once, before the disease develops beyond control. Heart disease is as easily cured as other troubles if taken in time.

Fainting

"I was subject to fainting spells, and many times I have fallen on the street. I was often compelled to sit down while walking to avoid falling. When physicians failed to help me, I took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and was completely cured."

are all alike and set up the same claims as the one filed Thursday seeking to get back upon the tax duplicate the increase made to the valuation of the Cleveland Gas, Light and Coke company by the annual city board of equalization. The companies named in the additional petitions and the amount of taxes that it is sought to recover are as follows. The People's Gas Light company, $19,057; Cleveland Electric Illuminating company, $23,285; Cleveland City Railway company, $150,263; Cleveland Electric Railway company, $183,228.

The various attorneys for the corporations have asked to be allowed to defend the county auditor when these cases come into court. Solicitor Kaiser has referred the matter to the attorney general.

BETTER CABOOSSES

Will Soon Be a Feature on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad.

An announcement made by an official of the C. & P. company will be gratifying news to the many conductors and brakemen in the employ of that company who live in Wellsville. Cabooses of the Pennsylvania company will be built after more improved designs in the future, looking to comfort and convenience of trainmen. They will be constructed longer, have ice boxes, lockers and other conveniences that will enable trainmen to live better while on the road.

The principal feature of the new cars will be their length, the dimensions providing for ample room for all the crew. The cars are to be fitted up in more attractive style and much of the crude work which now renders the interior of the caboose very monotonous will be relieved by comparatively artistic decorations.

AMERICAN DESERTER KILLED

A man named Long, who deserted with Winfrey, is still operating with the Filipinos.

The great popularity and extensive sale of this preparation can not be a surprise to anyone who is acquainted with its good qualities. Use it when you have need of such a remedy and it will do you good. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the most severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible. If not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." ## NASAL CATARRH CURED

Pe-ru-na Cures a Case of Five Years' Standing.

Mr. Rudolph M. Patterson, Chicago, Ill.

Hon. Rudolph M. Patterson, a well-known lawyer, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., at Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—“I have been a sufferer from nasal catarrh for the past five years, and at the earnest solicitation of a friend I tried Peruna and am glad to say it has afforded a complete cure. It is with pleasure I recommend it to others.”—RUDOLPH M. PATTERSON.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of 38 West 117th street, New York City, writes:

“I can honestly recommend Peruna as a great catarrh remedy. It heals and heals quickly and permanently.

“This is simply the whole story in a word. I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold and Peruna cured me. It is indeed a great medicine, and worthy the highest praise, for it is reliable and will never disappoint you.”—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

“There are two things that the whole medical profession agree about concerning catarrh. The first is that catarrh is the most prevalent and omnipresent disease to which the people in the United States are subject. All classes of people have it. Those who stay indoors much and those who go outdoors much. Working classes have it and sedentary classes have it.

“The doctor finds catarrh to be his constant and ever-present foe. It complicates nearly every disease he is called upon to treat.

“The second thing about catarrh on which all doctors agree, is that it is difficult to cure it. Local remedies may give relief but they fail to cure permanently. Sprays or snuffs amount to little or nothing except to give temporary relief.

Catarrh is frequently located in internal organs which cannot be reached by any sort of local treatment. All this is known by every physician.

To devise some systemic internal remedy which would reach catarrh at its source, to eradicate it permanently from the system—this has been the desire of the medical profession for a long time. Forty years ago Dr. Hartman confronted this problem. He believed then that he had solved it. He still believes he has solved it. He cures thousands of people annually. During all these years Pe-ru-na has been the remedy upon which he has relied.

It was at first a private prescription, afterwards manufactured expressly for him in large quantities. This remedy, Peruna, is now to be found in every drug-store and nearly every home in the land. It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

Mr. Camillus Senne, 257 West 129th street, New York, writes:

“I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Pe-ru-na.

“I read of Pe-ru-na in your almanac, and wrote you for advice, which I followed. After taking one and one-half bottles of Peruna I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peruna to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal troubles.”—Camillus Senne.

A course of Peruna never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peruna. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1902.

The house of representatives the other day unanimously passed a resolution in favor of a constitutional amendment permitting the election of United States senators by popular vote. In so voting the house voiced the sentiments of the people. It is time the senate began to view the question seriously, and to recognize the fact that the people will not forever submit to having their wishes ignored.

Three American-born women will be participants in the English coronation ceremonies. They are the Countess Craven, the Duchess of Marlborough and the Duchess of Manchester. Some of their sisters on this side of the water may be foolish enough to envy them their titled privileges. But there is no prouder title or greater privilege than that of being an American girl.

Questions of social precedence are vexing Chicago, for the first time in her history. Now that Prince Henry is to visit them, the natives are sorely puzzled to know whether royal practice is to receive brewers or pork packers next after the mayor and aldermen, and their alarm lest they make themselves ridiculous is really comic.

The bill before the Ohio legislature to give street railway employees police powers is raising a storm of protest among people who think the traction companies have as many privileges as they are entitled to and after they get their own policemen will want their own justices of the peace and other civil officers.

Democratic congressmen are certainly in desperate straits for material for fault-finding when they attempt to hold the Republican party responsible for what England did in the revolutionary war. That is the sense of Representative Wheeler's speech, if there was sense in it, which is problematical.

Several neighboring cities are getting some political excitement out of the fact that women are campaigning for membership on the board of education. East Liverpool ladies appear satisfied that the political battles will be well fought and nobly won without their assistance.

American bequests to educational and philanthropic institutions from 1893 to 1901, both inclusive, amounted to $421,410,000, and of this vast sum $107,300,000 was given last year. The spirit of individual philanthropy grows constantly.

Carnegie says a navy is unnecessary for this nation. That may be the case at the present moment, but how was it when Dewey sailed into Manila bay? A navy is kept for emergencies, not for constant use.

Nine men lost their lives and others were injured in a battle in Kentucky the other day. As no feud was at the bottom of the trouble the occurrence is so unusual as to attract attention, even in Kentucky.

The Commoner may be a howling success, but Colonel Bryan needs to be reminded that all precedent is against the election of the editor of a weekly newspaper to the presidency.

The man, in congress or elsewhere, who talks as if European enmity were preferable to European friendship talks like a fool.

A Wooster man, blind from birth, was kicked by a mule and had his sight restored. The suggestion is put forth that the Democratic party adopt that mule and turn its old one loose.

Santos-Dumont and his flying machine fell into the sea yesterday. Aerial navigation does not yet appear much safer than the Calcutta road street car line.

Representative Wheeler talked about "pitiable spectacles" yesterday. That was exactly the sort of a spectacle he made of himself.

For the benefit of those who have not had enough, the weather clerk is preparing another dose of old-fashioned winter.

OBITUARY

E. D. Griffith.

E. D. Griffith, aged 30 years, died at his new home on Pennsylvania avenue at 9:40 o'clock last evening of heart failure. The arrangements for the funeral services have not been completed, although it may be the services will be held at his late home tomorrow afternoon and the remains taken to Zanesville for interment Monday morning.

Mr. Griffith was brought up at Zanesville and before he came to Wellsville he was employed by the J. B. Owens Pottery company, of Zanesville, as a salesman. He left that company and came to Wellsville several years ago, where he was employed in one of the potteries. He soon came to this city and on May 1, 1898, he was given a position as motorman on the East Liverpool street railway. He worked in this capacity until January 1, last year, when he became a conductor. On May 30, 1900, he was married to Miss Effie Owings, one of the most popular young ladies of the East End. The wedding took place at Beaver, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. R. Greene, then pastor of the Second U. P. church, of which Mr. Griffith was a member. Just two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Griffith moved into their new home on Pennsylvania avenue. It is said that while he was working about his new home he contracted a severe cold which resulted in typhoid pneumonia. About 10 days ago he became so weak that death was caused by heart failure.

Mr. Griffith was a staunch labor advocate and has served as secretary of Local No. 52, A. A. S. R. E. of A., and has represented this local in Trades and Labor Council for several terms, holding a seat there at the time of his death.

Mrs. Mary E. Cathon.

Mrs. Mary E. Cathon, aged 59 years, died at her home at Alliance last evening at 5 o'clock, of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being made at the Alliance cemetery. She was born at Bellefonte, Pa., in 1842, and was a sister of C. N. Everson, of this city.

HIRING EXTRA EMPLOYEES.

Committee to Investigate Their Employment In Senate.

Washington, Feb. 15.—A little flurry was created in the senate yesterday over the employment, since the beginning of the session, of a score or more of extra clerks and messengers to committees. The charges of extravagance made induced the reference of the whole subject of clerical employment to a committee for investigation and report.

The bill creating a permanent census office was under consideration for a time, but was not disposed of finally. After the passage of a large number of private pension bills, the senate eulogized the life and character of the late Representative Brosius, of Pennsylvania.

SOME NEWS IN BRIEF.

The 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Lowry, of Butler, Pa., strayed away from his parents, while they were shopping in Washington, D. C., and was found by the police several hours later two miles from where he had disappeared.

The street car line between New Castle, Pa., and Lowellville will be thrown open for travel Sunday. Cars between the two towns will be run every hour, and the fare has been fixed at 30 cents for one way, which is half the cost of traveling on steam cars.

GOODWIN MATTER

last meeting, and with but a single exception every member had some part in the discussion. It is the intention of the officers of No. 21 to make a thorough canvass of the city with a view to having every clay maker in the jurisdiction of the union to affiliate with it. Several applications for membership are now pending, action upon which will be taken early in March.

Although nothing has been said about the matter for several weeks the kiln firemen have by no means dropped the idea of forming a local to be affiliated with the N. B. of O. P. During the past week the matter has been talked over by a number of firemen, and the next move to be made by them will be to make a canvass of the trade to ascertain how many of the craft are willing to become members of such an organization. It has been proposed to hold a meeting within a few days to talk over the project, but this matter will be determined likely next week.

Kilnmen's local No. 9 met last evening, between 150 and 200 kilnmen being present. It was decided to open nominations for delegates to the next convention, February 28. A resolution was passed to be forwarded to congress, relative to the immigration bill, asking that the new bill prohibit the entrance of any foreigner who is unable to read the English language. Two new members were obligated and one application for membership received.

Shipments of ware from this city last month were not as large as during the corresponding month one year ago. While it is well understood that a large amount of ware was sent out from the local potteries, the total shipments fell off about 1,000 pounds, when compared with last year's business. So far this month there has been a slight increase in the shipments.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 met last night and decided to consider the proposition to increase the pay of the convention delegates February 28. Two new members were obligated and the social committee reported that arrangements were being made to give another social.

Dippers' local No. 18 has decided to open nominations for convention delegates next Friday evening. It has been decided that these delegates receive $5 a day while at Trenton. A vote of thanks was tendered those who assisted the local at their recent social.

Robert Johnson, of Johnson Brothers, and Mr. Grindley of Grindley & Co., extensive pottery manufacturers of England, with their American representative, George Jones, Thursday made a visit to Trenton and visited the Maddock pottery and the Cook pottery.

Miss Sallie Greenwood, forewoman of the biscuit warehouse girls of the Union, will take her crew and go to Brunt's Monday. Miss Della Dugan, of the dipping house of the Union, will take the place of Miss Greenwood, but she has not yet secured a crew.

Owing to the severe weather all work has been stopped indefinitely on the new supply works that will be erected in Pink alley. Everything is in readiness to begin remodeling the old electric light plant building as soon as the weather will permit.

The contract has been let for the machinery that will equip the Laughlin No. 3, and the work is now ready for delivery. As soon as the structural work is completed the machinery is to be delivered. The lathes for this pottery are about completed.

Cartwrights shipped a car load of finally. After the passage of a large number of private pension bills, the senate eulogized the life and character of the late Representative Brosius, of Pennsylvania.

Kilnsheds and kilns are being whitewashed at the Sevres. The work is being done with a sprayer, and only two men are engaged at the task. The kiln shed presents a very clean appearance.

Miss Mary Saxton, employed in the dipping house at the Laughlin No. 1 has resigned her position on account of ill health. Her place will be filled by Ruth Fletcher.

Smith McDole, sticker-up for the big jigger at the East Liverpool, has been off duty for a week. He will return to work Monday morning.

W. M. Grise, a packer at the Cartwright pottery, is ill at his home on Trentvale street with pneumonia.

Announcement has been made that the Diamond has enough orders booked to keep that factory in steady operation for some time.

There is shortage of biscuit warehouse girls in a number of the hill potteries.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Mrs. Hollinger is visiting at the home of Mrs. John Elliott, at Sebring.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor, of Chester, left for Sebring this morning to visit relatives.

Miss Maude Carman, a teacher in the Horace Mann building, is absent from her home by reason of illness.

Geo. H. Owen and J. S. Hilbert returned this morning after attending convention of insurance men at Columbus.

Miss Hull, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. W. Healy, of Thompson avenue, has returned to her home in Scranton.

Miss Eliza Cartwright left yesterday for Pittsburgh, to attend the luncheon given by her sister, Mrs. Simon R. Huss, today.

Mrs. Goppert, who resides in Chester, has been very ill for several days. She is quite old and it is feared she cannot recover.

Mrs. George C. Kell and his son Lawrence left this morning for Zanesville, where they will visit Mr. Kell for several weeks.

Grant McGrew, of Smith's Ferry, who has been visiting a sick relative at Steubenville for a week, returned home last evening.

Alvin Huff and Roy Rinehart went to Steubenville yesterday afternoon and will bring back with them a driving horse purchased some time ago.

Miss Della Schmutz, after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. William Heath, and family, has returned to her home in Farmersville, O., accompanied by her niece, Miss Anna, who will spend the summer with her grandparents.

AT THE THEATER

The presentation of "Sapho" by the Schiller Stock company at the opera house last night was marred by the actions of the "gallery gods." There was quite a large audience and the majority present seemed to enjoy the performance, although it was somewhat foreign to the book of that name. During the last two acts a crowd of men and boys in the gallery became so unruly that upon several occasions the players stopped speaking. It seemed that no attempt was made to stop the rowdyism, although the officers were in the house. "Daughters of the Poor" will be presented tonight.

Humor, which has thus far been the key note of the season in New York as well as elsewhere throughout the country in theatrical circles, will be served to the patrons of the opera house Tuesday evening. "The Brixton Burglary," which is considered to be the best laughing vehicle since "Charlie's Aunt," will be the medium. While the name suggests old-fashioned melodrama, the play is a three-act rollicking farce with scarcely a serious moment. The farce will be presented here with what is considered the most expensive comedy cast on the road this season.

Mr. Tim Murphy will be seen at the opera house next Wednesday night on which occasion he will present here for the first time a new play of Washington life, "A Capitol Comedy," by Paul Wilstach. This one of the most successful American plays of this decade, and stands as the first drama on life in the national capitol which has received general admiration since "The Senator" and "A Texas Steer" made a standard which playwrights have found difficulty in approaching.

"The Game Keeper," with a wealth of beautiful scenery and a strong company of artists with Smith O'Brien at the head, will be seen at the opera house Monday night. The play was first produced last year. It proved to be an artistic and financial success for its owners, and this year it is being produced on a large and magnificent scale. Mr. O'Brien says he has the strongest supporting company he has ever had.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1902.

The house of representatives the other day unanimously passed a resolution in favor of a constitutional amendment permitting the election of United States senators by popular vote. In so voting the house voiced the sentiments of the people. It is time the senate began to view the question seriously, and to recognize the fact that the people will not forever submit to having their wishes ignored.

Three American-born women will be participants in the English coronation ceremonies. They are the Countess Craven, the Duchess of Marlborough and the Duchess of Manchester. Some of their sisters on this side of the water may be foolish enough to envy them their titled privileges. But there is no prouder title or greater privilege than that of being an American girl.

Questions of social precedence are vexing Chicago, for the first time in her history. Now that Prince Henry is to visit them, the natives are sorely puzzled to know whether royal practice is to receive brewers or pork packers next after the mayor and aldermen, and their alarm lest they make themselves ridiculous is really comic.

The bill before the Ohio legislature to give street railway employee police powers is raising a storm of protest among people who think the traction companies have as many privileges as they are entitled to and after they get their own policemen will want their own justices of the peace and other civil officers.

Democratic congressmen are certainly in desperate straits for material for fault-finding when they attempt to hold the Republican party responsible for what England did in the revolutionary war. That is the sense of Representative Wheeler's speech, if there was sense in it, which is problematical.

Several neighboring cities are getting some political excitement out of the fact that women are campaigning for membership on the board of education. East Liverpool ladies appear satisfied that the political battles will be well fought and nobly won without their assistance.

American bequests to educational and philanthropic institutions from 1893 to 1901, both inclusive, amounted to $421,410,000, and of this vast sum $107,300,000 was given last year. The spirit of individual philanthropy grows constantly.

Carnegie says a navy is unnecessary for this nation. That may be the case at the present moment, but how was it when Dewey sailed into Manila bay? A navy is kept for emergencies, not for constant use.

Nine men lost their lives and others were injured in a battle in Kentucky the other day. As no feud was at the bottom of the trouble the occurrence is so unusual as to attract attention, even in Kentucky.

The Commoner may be a howling success, but Colonel Bryan needs to be reminded that all precedent is against the election of the editor of a weekly newspaper to the presidency.

The man, in congress or elsewhere, who talks as if European enmity were preferable to European friendship talks like a fool.

OBITUARY

E. D. Griffith.

E. D. Griffith, aged 30 years, died at his new home on Pennsylvania avenue at 9:40 o'clock last evening of heart failure. The arrangements for the funeral services have not been completed, although it may be the services will be held at his late home tomorrow afternoon and the remains taken to Zanesville for interment Monday morning.

Mr. Griffith was brought up at Zanesville and before he came to Wellsville he was employed by the J. B. Owens Pottery company, of Zanesville, as a salesman. He left that company and came to Wellsville several years ago, where he was employed in one of the potteries. He soon came to this city and on May 1, 1898, he was given a position as motorman on the East Liverpool street railway. He worked in this capacity until January 1, last year, when he became a conductor. On May 30, 1900, he was married to Miss Effie Owings, one of the most popular young ladies of the East End. The wedding took place at Beaver, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. R. Greene, then pastor of the Second U. P. church, of which Mr. Griffith was a member. Just two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Griffith moved into their new home on Pennsylvania avenue. It is said that while he was working about his new home he contracted a severe cold which resulted in typhoid pneumonia. About 10 days ago he became so weak that death was caused by heart failure.

Mr. Griffith was a staunch labor advocate and has served as secretary of Local No. 52, A. A. S. R. E. of A., and has represented this local in Trades and Labor Council for several terms, holding a seat there at the time of his death.

Mrs. Mary E. Cathon.

Mrs. Mary E. Cathon, aged 59 years, died at her home at Alliance last evening at 5 o'clock, of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being made at the Alliance cemetery. She was born at Belle Vernon, Pa., in 1842, and was a sister of C. N. Everson, of this city.

HIRING EXTRA EMPLOYEES.

Committee to Investigate Their Employment in Senate.

Washington, Feb. 15.—A little flurry was created in the senate yesterday over the employment, since the beginning of the session, of a score or more of extra clerks and messengers to committees. The charges of extravagance made induced the reference of the whole subject of clerical employment to a committee for investigation and report.

The bill creating a permanent census office was under consideration for a time, but was not disposed of finally. After the passage of a large number of private pension bills, the senate eulogized the life and character of the late Representative Brosius, of Pennsylvania.

SOME NEWS IN BRIEF.

The 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Lowry, of Butler, Pa., strayed away from his parents, while they were shopping in Washington, D. C., and was found by the police several hours later two miles from where he had disappeared.

The street car line between New Castle, Pa., and Lowellville will be thrown open for travel Sunday. Cars between the two towns will be run every hour, and the fare has been fixed at 30 cents for one way, which is half the cost of traveling on steam cars.

last meeting, and with but a single exception every member had some part in the discussion. It is the intention of the officers of No. 21 to make a thorough canvass of the city with a view to having every clay maker in the jurisdiction of the union to affiliate with it. Several applications for membership are now pending, action upon which will be taken early in March.

Although nothing has been said about the matter for several weeks the kiln firemen have by no means dropped the idea of forming a local to be affiliated with the N. B. of O. P. During the past week the matter has been talked over by a number of firemen, and the next move to be made by them will be to make a canvass of the trade to ascertain how many of the craft are willing to become members of such an organization. It has been proposed to hold a meeting within a few days to talk over the project, but this matter will be determined likely next week.

Kilnmen's local No. 9 met last evening, between 150 and 200 kilnmen being present. It was decided to open nominations for delegates to the next convention, February 28. A resolution was passed to be forwarded to congress, relative to the immigration bill, asking that the new bill prohibit the entrance of any foreigner who is unable to read the English language. Two new members were obligated and one application for membership received.

Shipments of ware from this city last month were not as large as during the corresponding month one year ago. While it is well understood that a large amount of ware was sent out from the local potteries, the total shipments fell off about 1,000 pounds, when compared with last year's business. So far this month there has been a slight increase in the shipments.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 met last night and decided to consider the proposition to increase the pay of the convention delegates February 28. Two new members were obligated and the social committee reported that arrangements were being made to give another social.

Dippers' local No. 18 has decided to open nominations for convention delegates next Friday evening. It has been decided that these delegates receive $5 a day while at Trenton. A vote of thanks was tendered those who assisted the local at their recent social.

Robert Johnson, of Johnson Brothers, and Mr. Grindley, of Grindley & Co., extensive pottery manufacturers of England, with their American representative, George Jones, Thursday made a visit to Trenton and visited the Maddock pottery and the Cook pottery.

Miss Sallie Greenwood, forewoman of the biscuit warehouse girls of the Union, will take her crew and go to Brunt's Monday. Miss Della Dugan, of the dipping house of the Union, will take the place of Miss Greenwood, but she has not yet secured a crew.

Owing to the severe weather all work has been stopped indefinitely on the new supply works that will be erected in Pink alley. Everything is in readiness to begin remodeling the old electric light plant building as soon as the weather will permit.

The contract has been let for the machinery that will equip the Laughlin No. 3, and the work is now ready for delivery. As soon as the structural work is completed the machinery is to be delivered. The lathes for this pottery are about completed.

Cartwrights shipped a car load of ware to Memphis, Tenn., yesterday. Another car will be shipped by this firm Monday to Nebraska City, Neb., containing 18 No. 1 and 14 No. 2 casks filled with nothing but oat meals.

Kilnsheds and kilns are being whitewashed at the Sevres. The work is being done with a sprayer, and only two men are engaged at the task. The kiln shed presents a very clean appearance.

Miss Mary Saxton, employed in the dipping house at the Laughlin No. 1 has resigned her position on account of ill health. Her place will be filled by Ruth Fletcher.

Smith McDole, sticker-up for the big jigger at the East Liverpool, has been off duty for a week. He will return to work Monday morning.

W. M. Grise, a packer at the Cartwright pottery, is ill at his home on Trentvale street with pneumonia.

Announcement has been made that the Diamond has enough orders booked to keep that factory in steady operation for some time.

There is shortage of biscuit warehouse girls in a number of the hill potteries.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Mrs. Hollinger is visiting at the home of Mrs. John Elliott, at Sebring.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor, of Chester, left for Sebring this morning to visit relatives.

Miss Maude Carman, a teacher in the Horace Mann building, is absent from her home by reason of illness.

Geo. H. Owen and J. S. Hilbert returned this morning after attending a convention of insurance men at Columbus.

Miss Hull, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. W. Healy, of Thompson avenue, has returned to her home in Scranton.

Miss Eliza Cartwright left yesterday for Pittsburgh, to attend the luncheon given by her sister, Mrs. Simon R. Huss, today.

Mrs. Goppert, who resides in Chester, has been very ill for several days. She is quite old and it is feared she cannot recover.

Mrs. George C. Kell and his son Lawrence left this morning for Zanesville, where they will visit Mr. Kell for several weeks.

Grant McGrew, of Smith's Ferry, who has been visiting a sick relative at Steubenville for a week, returned home last evening.

Alvin Huff and Roy Rinehart went to Steubenville yesterday afternoon and will bring back with them a driving horse purchased some time ago.

Miss Della Schmutz, after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. William Heath, and family, has returned to her home in Farmersville, O., accompanied by her niece, Miss Anna, who will spend the summer with her grandparents.

AT THE THEATER

The presentation of "Sapho" by the Schiller Stock company at the opera house last night was marred by the actions of the "gallery gods." There was quite a large audience and the majority present seemed to enjoy the performance, although it was somewhat foreign to the book of that name.

During the last two acts a crowd of men and boys in the gallery became so unruly that upon several occasions the players stopped speaking. It seemed that no attempt was made to stop the rowdyism, although the officers were in the house. "Daughters of the Poor" will be presented tonight.

Humor, which has thus far been the key note of the season in New York as well as elsewhere throughout the country in theatrical circles, will be served to the patrons of the opera house Tuesday evening. "The Brixton Burglary," which is considered to be the best laughing vehicle since "Charlie's Aunt," will be the medium. While the name suggests old-fashioned melodrama, the play is a three-act rollicking farce with scarcely a serious moment. The farce will be presented here with what is considered the most expensive comedy cast on the road this season.

AT THE THEATER

The presentation of "Sapho" by the Schiller Stock company at the opera house last night was marred by the actions of the "gallerie gods." There was quite a large audience and the majority present seemed to enjoy the performance, although it was somewhat foreign to the book of that name. During the last two acts a crowd of men and boys in the gallery became so unruly that upon several occasions the players stopped speaking. It seemed that no attempt was made to stop the rowdyism, although the officers were in the house. "Daughters of the Poor" will be presented tonight.

Humor, which has thus far been the key note of the season in New York as well as elsewhere throughout the country in theatrical circles, will be served to the patrons of the opera house Tuesday evening. "The Brixton Burglary," which is considered to be the best laughing vehicle since "Charley's Aunt," will be the medium. While the name suggests old-fashioned melodrama, the play is a three-act rollicking farce with scarcely a serious moment. The farce will be presented here with what is considered the most expensive comedy cast on the road this season.

Mr. Tim Murphy will be seen at the opera house next Wednesday night on which occasion he will present here for the first time a new play of Washington life, "A Capitol Comedy," by Paul Wilstach. This one of the most successful American plays of this decade, and stands as the first drama on life in the national capitol which has received general admiration since "The Senator" and "A Texas Steer" made a standard which playwrights have found difficulty in approaching.

"The Game Keeper," with a wealth of beautiful scenery and a strong company of artists with Smith O'Brien at the head, will be seen at the opera house Monday night. The play was first produced last year. It proved to be an artistic and financial success for its owners, and this year it is being produced on a large and magnificent scale. Mr. O'Brien says he has the strongest supporting company he has ever had.

MAY CONTEST IT

Certain Second Warders Dispute the Regularity of a Recent Caucus.

Among a few of the Second ward Republicans there is objection raised to the election of the three central committeemen, E. C. Taylor, J. W. McQueen and John Duncan, who were chosen at a caucus held in the city hall last Saturday evening. It is alleged by some that the three were the only representatives present at the caucus.

This charge has been openly uttered by R. B. Appel and he has interested a few of his friends to such an extent that measures may be taken to have the election pronounced invalid by the present committeemen at a special meeting tonight. The elected committeemen say that they can prove that there were at least a dozen Republicans at the caucus.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

Held a Largely Attended And Most Interesting Meeting Yesterday.

The Twentieth Century club held a most interesting meeting at Mrs. G. L. Howe's on Front street yesterday afternoon. Nearly the full membership was present and a very pleasing program was rendered. It follows:

Quotations from Whittier, by each member of the club; paper, "Influence of English Literature on Americans"; Mrs. Laverty; paper, "Kansas-Nebraska Bill"; Mrs. Butler; paper, "Causes Which Led to the Civil War"; Mrs. Armstrong; paper, "The Effect of Slavery on the United States"; Mrs. Wells; select reading, extra from Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Mrs. Smith.

The meeting was led by Mrs. R. A. Noble. Miss Mary Smith was selected to represent the club at the Woman's club convention, which is to be held at Los Angeles, Cal., during the month of May.

BRICKLAYERS' MEETING

Delegate Stevenson Reports a Successful Convention in Cleveland.

Charles Stevenson returned last evening from Cleveland, where he attended the annual meeting of the Bricklayers' association. The meeting was held in the Hotel Hollenden and there were 460 members present. Business of great importance to the bricklayers throughout the United States was transacted.

The banquet which followed the business meeting was most elaborate and enjoyable. All of the members were given souvenir spoons, which are beautifully designed.

VALENTINE PARTY

An Enjoyable Affair at the Home of Miss Helen Bailey Last Night.

Miss Helen Bailey at her home on Center street was pleasantly surprised last evening by a valentine party arranged by a number of her friends. They arrived at an early hour and played many games appropriate for the 14th of February, after which a choice luncheon was enjoyed.

Those present were: Misses Mary Blue, Georgia Paul, Edith Purdie, Maude Thomas and Lulu Turner and Messrs. John Tomilson, Reed Ashbaugh, Robert Morrow and George Rigby, of East Liverpool.

UPSET A TEA KETTLE

A West End Baby Badly Scalded on Its Hands And Face.

Harry, a two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jacobs, West End, yesterday afternoon was playing in the kitchen near a stove and fell against a tea kettle filled with boiling water.

A large quantity of water spurted out on his hands and face, burning them quite severely. It is feared that the child's face may be permanently disfigured.

Bowlers Did Not Come.

The local bowling fans were much disappointed at the non-appearance of the Steubenville team last evening. The captain of the team telephoned that two of his men found it impossible to come, but would do so next week. A game was arranged for Tuesday evening. The Lisbon boys will be in tonight and an interesting game is expected.

WIDOW MURDERED;

POLICE DETAILED SON.

New York, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Kate Voepel, a widow, was murdered in her apartments, in Christopher street. She was found dead by her young son. There were 18 knife thrusts in her body, and a disordered, blood-marked room told of a desperate struggle before the woman gave up.

The police detained the son, but have little reason to suspect him, and have so far been unable to fathom the case. Robbery was evidently not the motive, for a large diamond ring was left untouched on the body.

The Philadelphia Casualty Company's ACCIDENT POLICY.

Insurance which insures only at the end of a law suit is dear at any price.

You Do Not Want a Policy Like This!

That does not grow in value. That pays weekly indemnity for only 52 weeks or 104 weeks against our 200 weeks.

That pays only one-half its face value if you become permanently disabled.

That provides for the deduction of any weekly indemnity paid within twelve months, in making settlement for a death loss.

That pays only about one-tenth its face value for the loss of an eye.

It is not the Amount of Money you spend for Insurance, but it is the Amount of Insurance you get for your money that tells.

HEALTH POLICY.

What it Covers

What it Costs

The Principal Sum is paid for Total Blindness or Total Paralysis. It differs from all other Health Policies. The Principal Sum is increased Five Per Cent. each year, until the eleventh year is reached, without additional cost to the Policyholder.

This Policy also provides Weekly Indemnity not exceeding Twenty-six Weeks, for Disableness from any of the following Thirty Diseases:

Apoplexy	Appendicitis
Bronchitis (Acute Non-tubercular)
Carbuncle	Cebro-spinal Fever
Chicken Pox	Cholera (Asiatic)
Diphtheria	Erysipelas
Hemiplegia	Hydrocephalus
Iritis	Lock-jaw
Measles	Meningitis
Mumps	Peritonitis
Pleurisy	Pneumonia (Lobar)
Retinitis	Scarlatina
Scarlet Fever	Small Pox
Spotted Fever	Tetanus
Eyphilitis	Typhoid Fever
Typhus Fever	Yellow Fever
	Varioloid

You may think you cannot afford it, but if you become disabled by sickness those who must economize to keep the household expenses down will feel that they cannot afford to have you neglect the protection of Health Insurance.

How will you manage to make your payments to the building and loan association if you become sick and disabled for ten or twelve weeks? Payments must be made on investments of this kind and on life insurance policies when they fall due.

And he thrust Blair into the office, practically carrying the man at arm's length. Utterly insane with the fear of death, Blair struck at his captor vainly and screamed like a child.

Elmendorf was struggling to his feet as they entered, and Alden uttered a cry at the sight of him.

"Did he do this?" he exclaimed, pointing at Blair, whom he had released.

Elmendorf pressed his hand upon his hair, which was wet with blood.

"Yes," he said hoarsely; "this—and the other?"

Alden paused an instant, the strength of his body gathering for effort. Then he leaped forward and seemed to pass half through, half over, the body of Blair, as if it had been a ghost in garments. Turning, he saw Blair lying upon the floor, his limbs contorted, his face bearing the unmistakable stamp of death.

Elmendorf staggered forward and knelt beside the body.

"We're going to keep her secret," he said. "Her name must not appear in this. We must see what the man has in his pockets and in the room. Some of these fellows make strange memoanda."

"Brenda has told me the story," said Alden. "It could not be concealed. In fact, I had got so much from the nurse you bribed that the remainder mattered little. And this man was her husband, this cowardly wretch, this assassin of women!"

"He was also an inventor of women," said Elmendorf. "And I never knew a swindler trick."

"Do you mean that he lied about seeing one?"

"There was no mysterious woman in the case," replied Elmendorf. "It was a pure fiction and worthy of its author. He was clever, and for a thoroughgoing scoundrel—Hello! What's this?"

He had drawn a sheet of paper from Blair's pocket, and after a glance at it he handed it to Alden, who read that Arthur Gordon Blair and Joseph Neale, captain of police, were equal partners.

CHAPTER XX.

THE ONLY THING THAT MATTERS.

THE document appeared to possess the power of a spell, for while Alden held it in his hands he heard one heavy blow upon the door, and then Neale strode into the room.

"What's this?" he demanded. "Elmendorf, didn't I tell you to let this man alone?"

"I'll let him alone now, captain," said Elmendorf. "You can bury him. And see that you bury everything else too. This whole case is on the quiet. I can steer things at headquarters with a little money, Mr. Alden, and Joe Neale must take care of the precinct. This is a mysterious suicide, Neale; due probably to financial trouble or ill health. It has no relation to the case of Miss Miller."

"Since when did I take orders from you?" cried Neale.

"Since I got hold of this," replied Elmendorf, showing the partnership agreement. "I know the whole game, Neale, and you can't stand it just now."

"I think you can," said Kendall—now."

And with the last word he looked at Brenda. Alden understood.

"I shall be all you wish me to be," he said.

So they went to Elsie's room, Alden lingering until the way was prepared for him. He entered smiling and handsome in the way of the days before. He knelt down beside Elsie's bed and there's the size of your clan, little girl."

"So only love matters," said Alden, still upon his knees. "Is not that true?"

Elsie was silent for a moment. Then she suddenly opened the hand that Alden wasn't holding and showed him something which had been clasped in it.

"Do you recognize it?" she said. "I've kept it all the time."

"My message that I sent the first night you were here," he exclaimed, taking it.

"The mysterious message?" said Brenda.

"You may read it if you like," said Alden, giving her the paper. "Elsie is willing."

"Wait!" cried Elsie. "You may read it if you will give it to Dr. Kendall afterward."

"That will be no more than ordinary politeness," said Brenda, glancing at the paper; "only three words—I love you."

And she put the little missive into Kendall's hand.

The arrangements of Captain Neale and Detective Elmendorf accomplished a beautifully complete suppression of the news in the case, and the latter received the sincere thanks of Alden, who spoke for all others concerned. There might have been other considerations than mere thanks; but, in the detective's opinion, the time was not ripe for corruption.

About a week later Alden was surprised to meet Elmendorf in a car of the elevated road dressed in a patrolman's uniform.

"Back to the ranks," said Elmendorf gloomily. "Neale's pull has finally got me. The 'front office' expressed regret. I don't know why."

"Resign," said Alden. "I want you with me. My deal has gone through in great shape. I can put you in the way of making money."

"Nobody can do that," said Elmendorf. "I wasn't born for it."

Alden did not reply in words, but he fastened a grip on Elmendorf's arm that couldn't have been loosened without a major surgical operation and led him out of the train despite his protests on the ground of duty. They went to Alden's office, and when they left it "the force" had lost an excellent officer and really able detective.

presently joined him. "I think the danger is all over," said Kendall, taking Alden's hand. "This last attack of faintness was to be expected; but I do not look for any recurrence. But how is it with you? Something serious has happened?"

Alden told them simply and directly just what had occurred.

"She is free, then?" exclaimed Brenda.

"Yes, and partly by my hand," he replied. "Brenda, I am glad of it. I am glad to have been concerned in that man's death. I am more than half a savage. From the first instant, when I learned that Elsie had been struck down, I had scarcely more than one idea, one passion—the desire for vengeance. I wanted to kill with my own hands the man who had done this thing. All softer feelings were swallowed up in that one desire."

"It produced a singular effect," said Kendall, with a shudder.

"You mean that I seemed to be guilty of this crime?" said Alden calmly. "Well, there was murder in my heart at the time, you see, and I cannot blame any who misjudged me. And now, Brenda," he said, drawing himself up and clinching his white and delicate hands that gave so little hint of their enormous strength, "I am glad that I can go to her and tell her that he is dead; that that dreadful nightmare of the past need not hang over her; that all these horrors—

"My friend," said Brenda, checking him, "you will do nothing of the kind."

He asked her in surprise what she might mean.

"You will utter no such violent sentiments," she said. "Elsie believes herself a sinner. She looks upon that folly as if it were a terrible offense, and what is much more important, she believes that you will so regard it. She thinks that you will look upon her as a girl disgraced by her own act and saved by chance. The whole matter has assumed a shape utterly monstrous in her eyes. Now, what will you do—thank God in her presence that the dreadful drama closed with your hands upon Blair's throat? Never, never! You will be very gentle always. You will say to her in the beginning that you love her dearly and that nothing else matters in the least. You will speak as little as possible of this tangle of crime. It is not important. Do you comprehend? Love is what matters. Throughout these first difficult days and for all your life you will do the same thing. You will help her to forget that such men as Blair are in the world; that she ever met one of them. It won't be a forbidden topic. Oh, far from that; merely a matter not worth brooding over in a world full of sunshine and love."

"Brenda," said he, "this is the flower of wisdom. I think I might have erred in a way that would have taken a long time to set right. Can I see her now?"

"I think you can," said Kendall—now."

And with the last word he looked at Brenda. Alden understood.

"I shall be all you wish me to be," he said.

So they went to Elsie's room, Alden lingering until the way was prepared for him. He entered smiling and handsome in the way of the days before. He knelt down beside Elsie's bed and Marvelous Elixir of Life Discovered by Famous Doctor-Scientist That Cures Every Known Ailment.

Wonderful Cures Are Effected That Seem Like Miracles Performed—The Secret of Long Life of Olden Times Revived.

The Remedy Is Free to All Who Send Name and Address.

After years of patient study, and delving into the dusty record of the past, as well as following modern experiments in the realm of medical science, Dr. James W. Kidd, 2917 First National Bank building, Fort Wayne, Ind., makes the startling announcement

"Blood Wine" cures Rheumatism and cures it quickly, thoroughly and permanently. It cures neuralgia, and all forms of aches and pains. Is not Rheumatism caused by uric acid in the blood? This everybody knows. To treat it you must have something to work directly on the blood, to filter it, cleanse and purify it, drive the uric acid out of it and make it so healthy that it or any other foreign matter will not return again. "Blood Wine" is a powerful blood remedy, hence an effective rheumatic cure. It contains no wine or opiates, but medicine of most extraordinary value. For Rheumatism "Blood Wine" never fails.

Mrs. T. Foster of Salem St., Providence, R. I., was saved from a life of suffering, and given back her health by using

"Blood Wine." She says:

"I have used six bottles of 'Blood Wine' for rheumatism and backache, and feel it my duty to let you know what your medicine has done for me. I am completely cured and owe my recovery wholly to your 'Blood Wine.'"

Mrs. ADDIE FLETCHER.

Mrs. Addie Fletcher of 22 Isabella St., Boston, Mass., has experienced a very wonderful cure of rheumatism of long standing. These are her words:

"I think I ought to write you in regard to my experience with your valuable remedy. I have had rheumatism in my ankle so badly that I have been unable to walk for days at a time, and I was almost disengaged when 'Blood Wine' was recommended to me. I thought I would try one more medicine, and was delighted to find that I gained rapidly while taking one bottle, and now I find myself almost cured after taking four bottles. 'Blood Wine' is invaluable in my household and I heartily recommend it to all."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed and Hodson's drug stores.

"He was also an inventor of women," said Elmendorf. "And I never knew a shrewd trick."

"Do you mean that he lied about seeing one?"

"There was no mysterious woman in the case," replied Elmendorf. "It was a pure fiction and worthy of its author. He was clever, and for a thoroughgoing scoundrel—Hello! What's this?"

He had drawn a sheet of paper from Blair's pocket, and after a glance at it he handed it to Alden, who read that Arthur Gordon Blair and Joseph Neale, captain of police, were equal partners.

CHAPTER XX.

THE ONLY THING THAT MATTERS.

THE document appeared to possess the power of a spell, for while Alden held it in his hands he heard one heavy blow upon the door, and then Neale strode into the room.

"What's this?" he demanded. "Elmendorf, didn't I tell you to let this man alone?"

"I'll let him alone now, captain," said Elmendorf. "You can bury him. And see that you bury everything else too. This whole case is on the quiet. I can steer things at headquarters with a little money, Mr. Alden, and Joe Neale must take care of the precinct. This is a mysterious suicide, Neale; due probably to financial trouble or ill health. It has no relation to the case of Miss Miller."

"Since when did I take orders from you?" cried Neale.

"Since I got hold of this," replied Elmendorf, showing the partnership agreement. "I know the whole game, Neale, and you can't stand it just now."

"I think you can," said Kendall—now."

And with the last word he looked at Brenda. Alden understood.

"I shall be all you wish me to be," he said.

So they went to Elsie's room. Alden lingered until the way was prepared for him. He entered smiling and handsome in the way of the days before. He knelt down beside Elsie's bed and presently joined him.

"I think the danger is all over," said Kendall, taking Alden's hand. "This last attack of faintness was to be expected; but I do not look for any recurrence. But how is it with you? Something serious has happened?"

Alden told them simply and directly just what had occurred.

"She is free, then?" exclaimed Brenda.

"Yes, and partly by my hand," he replied. "Brenda, I am glad of it. I am glad to have been concerned in that man's death. I am more than half a savage. From the first instant, when I learned that Elsie had been struck down, I had scarcely more than one idea, one passion—the desire for vengeance. I wanted to kill with my own hands the man who had done this thing. All softer feelings were swallowed up in that one desire."

"It produced a singular effect," said Kendall, with a shudder.

"You mean that I seemed to be guilty of this crime?" said Alden calmly. "Well, there was murder in my heart at the time, you see, and I cannot blame any who misjudged me. And now, Brenda," he said, drawing himself up and clutching his white and delicate hands that gave so little hint of their enormous strength, "I am glad that I can go to her and tell her that he is dead; that that dreadful nightmare of the past need not hang over her; that all these horrors—

"My friend," said Brenda, checking him, "you will do nothing of the kind."

He asked her in surprise what she might mean.

"You will utter no such violent sentiments," she said. "Elsie believes herself a sinner. She looks upon that folly as if it were a terrible offense, and what is much more important, she believes that you will so regard it. She thinks that you will look upon her as a girl disgraced by her own act and saved by chance. The whole matter has assumed a shape utterly monstrous in her eyes. Now, what will you do?"

"Thank God in her presence that the dreadful drama closed with your hands upon Blair's throat? Never, never!"

You will be very gentle always. You will say to her in the beginning that you love her dearly and that nothing else matters in the least. You will speak as little as possible of this tangle of crime. It is not important. Do you comprehend? Love is what matters. Throughout these first difficult days and for all your life you will do the same thing. You will help her to forget that such men as Blair are in the world; that she ever met one of them. It won't be a forbidden topic. Oh, far from that; merely a matter not worth brooding over in a world full of sunshine and love."

"Brenda," said he, "this is the flower of wisdom. I think I might have erred in a way that would have taken a long time to set right. Can I see her now?"

"I think you can," said Kendall—now."

And with the last word he looked at Brenda. Alden understood.

"I shall be all you wish me to be," he said.

So they went to Elsie's room. Alden lingered until the way was prepared for him. He entered smiling and handsome in the way of the days before. He knelt down beside Elsie's bed and there's the size of your clan, little girl!"

"So only love matters," said Alden, still upon his knees. "Is not that true?"

Elsie was silent for a moment. Then she suddenly opened the hand that Alden wasn't holding and showed him something which had been clasped in it.

"Do you recognize it?" she said. "I've kept it all the time."

"My message that I sent the first night you were here," he exclaimed, taking it.

"The mysterious message!" said Brenda.

"You may read it if you like," said Alden, giving her the paper. "Elsie is willing."

"Wait!" cried Elsie. "You may read it if you will give it to Dr. Kendall afterward."

"That will be no more than ordinary politeness," said Brenda, glancing at the paper; "only three words—'I love you.'"

And she put the little missive into Kendall's hand.

The arrangements of Captain Neale and Detective Elmendorf accomplished a beautifully complete suppression of the news in the case, and the latter received the sincere thanks of Alden, who spoke for all others concerned. There might have been other considerations than mere thanks; but, in the detective's opinion, the time was not ripe for corruption.

About a week later Alden was surprised to meet Elmendorf in a car of the elevated road dressed in a patrolman's uniform.

"Back to the ranks," said Elmendorf gloomily. "Neale's pull has finally got me. The 'front office' expressed regret. I don't know why."

"Resign," said Alden. "I want you with me. My deal has gone through in great shape. I can put you in the way of making money."

"Nobody can do that," said Elmendorf. "I wasn't born for it."

Alden did not reply in words, but he fastened a grip on Elmendorf's arm that couldn't have been loosened without a major surgical operation and led him out of the train despite his protests on the ground of duty. They went to Alden's office, and when they left it "the force" had lost an excellent officer and really able detective.

"But still this story, Clarence—think of it!" she said. "It is bound to be told."

"My child," said he gently, "if you are my wife and are received by the MacLanes and a few other people whom I know!"

"Including the Kendalls," said Brenda. "Don't forget them."

"No," said the doctor, "that wouldn't do at all. Why, a dozen years ago, when the phrase 'the Four Hundred' was first heard, an old dowager of my tribe protested against it. 'Four hundred indeed!' cried she. 'Why, there are more than 400 Kendalls!' So

"What's this?" he demanded.

CURES RHEUMATISM.

Stops the Pain and Reduces Swelling Almost Instantly.

Blood Wine Goes About It In A Different Way—Begins at the Bottom—Removes the Cause.

"Blood Wine" cures Rheumatism and cures it quickly, thoroughly and permanently. It cures neuralgia, and all forms of aches and pains. Is not Rheumatism caused by uric acid in the blood? This everybody knows. To treat it you must have something to work directly on the blood, to filter it, cleanse and purify it, drive the uric acid out of it and make it so healthy that it or any other foreign matter will not return again. "Blood Wine" is a powerful blood remedy, hence an effective rheumatic cure. It contains no wine or opiates, but medicine of most extraordinary value. For Rheumatism "Blood Wine" never fails.

Mrs. T. Foster of Salem St., Providence, R. I., was saved from a life of suffering, and given back her health by using "Blood Wine." She says:

"I have used six bottles of 'Blood Wine' for rheumatism and backache, and feel it my duty to let you know what your medicine has done for me. I am completely cured and owe my recovery wholly to your 'Blood Wine.'"

Mrs. ADDIE FLETCHER.

Mrs. ADDIE FLETCHER of 22 Isabella St., Boston, Mass., has experienced many wonderful cures of rheumatism of long standing. These are her words:

"I think I ought to write you in regard to my experience with your valuable remedy. I have had rheumatism in my ankle so badly that I have been unable to walk for days at a time, and I was almost discouraged when 'Blood Wine' was recommended to me. I thought I would try one more medicine, and was delighted to find that I gained rapidly while taking one bottle, and now I find myself almost cured after taking four bottles. 'Blood Wine' is invaluable in my household and I heartily recommend it to all."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed and Hodson's drug stores.

Marvelous Elixir of Life Discovered by Famous Doctor-Scientist That Cures Every Known Ailment.

Wonderful Cures Are Effected That Seem Like Miracles Performed—The Secret of Long Life of Olden Times Revived.

The Remedy Is Free to All Who Send Name and Address.

After years of patient study, and delving into the dusty record of the past, as well as following modern experiments in the realms of medical science, Dr. James W. Kidd, First National Bank building, Fort Wayne, Ind., makes the startling announcement that he has surely discovered the elixir of life. That he is able with the aid of a mysterious compound to renew the human body, produced as a result of the years he has spent in searching for this precious life-giving balm, to cure any and every disease that is known to the human body. There is no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claim and the remarkable cures he has already effected seem to bear him out very strongly. His method of approach is one of reason and based on sound experience in a medical practice of many years. It costs nothing to try his remarkable "Elixir of Life," as he calls it, for he sends it free to anyone who is a sufferer, in sufficient quantities to convince of its ability to cure so much as is absolutely possible. Some of the cases cited are very remarkable, and but for reliable witnesses would hardly be credited. The lame have thrown away crutches and walked about after two or three trials of the remedy. The sick, given up by home doctors, have been restored to their families and friends in perfect health. Rheumatism, rickets, scrofula, heart, liver, kidney, blood and skin diseases and bladder troubles disappear as by magic. Headaches, backaches, nervousness, fevers, consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all afflictions of the throat, lungs or any vital organs are easily cured in a space of time that is simply marvelous.

Partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, dropsy, gout, scrofula and piles are quickly and permanently removed. It purifies the entire system, blood and tissue, restores normal nerve power, circulation and a state of perfect health is produced at once. To the doctor all systems are alike and equally affected by this great "Elixir of Life." Send for the remedy today. It is free to every sufferer. State what you want to be sent out and the sure remedy for it will be sent you free by return mail.

OPPORTUNITY

Many people would like to honor the memory of departed loved ones with a handsome monument, but the high prices demanded by the local monuments dealers prevent.

We will and deliver fine monuments or headstones at much lower prices than similar stones can be obtained elsewhere.

Most of your local monument dealers work by expensive hand methods, while our work is done by the more improved labor saving machine. Moreover, our work not only lessens the cost of the monument, but insures better results as the moldings, letters, etc., are cut much deeper and smoother than by hand and therefore show plainer.

The stone we use is the very best, will not rust, discolor or become streaked as most granites do.

We sell to monument dealers at wholesale and also sell direct to the individual buyer, delivering carriage paid.

Our handsome booklet with designs explaining all. It's free if you mention this paper.

Kidney sufferers appreciate this. They find relief for every kidney ill. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, and resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years of '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back, and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediate relief and warded off the last attack."

Many people would like to have the memory of departed loved ones but the high prices demanded by the local monument dealers prevent them.

We sell and deliver fine monuments or headstones at much lower prices than similar stones can be obtained for elsewhere.

While our larger and more prominent dealers work by expensive hand methods, while our work is done by the most improved labor saving machinery. Machine work not only lessens the cost of the monument, but insures better results. Inscriptions, letters, etc., are cut much deeper and smoother than by hand and therefore show plainer.

The stone we use is the very best—will not rust, discolor or become streaked as most granite does.

We sell to monument dealers at wholesale and also sell direct to the individual buyer, delivering complete in the cemetery.

Our handsome booklet with designs explains all. It's free if you mention this paper.

by Local Experience.

Grateful people will talk.

Tell their experience for the public good.

East Liverpool citizens praise Doan's Kidney Pills.

Kidney sufferers appreciate this.

They find relief for every kidney ill.

Read what this citizen says:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, and resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years of '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back, and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediate relief and warded off the last attack."

NEW FIRE STATION

SECURED THROUGH THE HARD WORK OF R. C. HEDDLESTON.

Many Other Improvements Secured by the Present First Ward Councilman—Will Be Re-elected.

As a taxpayer and one interested in the affairs of the city in general, I desire to call the attention of the Republican voters in the First ward to the efficient work done by our present representative in the city council, Russell C. Heddleston. After long and arduous labors he has finally succeeded in having ground purchased on the North Side on which a fire station will be erected, thus giving every property holder in that section of the city ample fire protection, something they have not had since that portion of the city began to build up, although many efforts have been made to secure it heretofore. Many other improvements are under way for our section of the city, among them the improvement of Robinson street, which will be started as soon as the grades can be established, and I think every voter in the city should appoint himself a committee to work and vote for Mr. Heddleston in order that the best interests of our ward may be subserved, his many improvements now under way completed, and last but not least, as a reward for the faithful services he has performed during his term now drawing to a close.

ENGLAND REFUSED TO ACT.

Any Sentiments Pauncefote Expressed Were Not Government's,
Said Cranborne.

London, Feb. 15.—The parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, Lord Cranborne, replying in the house of commons to a question of Henry Norman (Liberal) on the subject of the action of the British ambassador at Washington, Lord Pauncefote, April 14, 1898, said:

"The meeting which occurred April 14, 1898, was convened by Lord Pauncefote, as dean of the ambassadors, at the verbal suggestion of some of his colleagues. Whatever opinions were expressed by Lord Pauncefote during the discussion, which was of an informal character, were personal to himself, and not pursuant to instructions from her majesty's government. The discussion resulted in an agreement to forward an identical telegram to their respective governments, suggesting a further communication to the United States government. On receipt of this message her majesty's government immediately replied by objecting to the terms of the communication as injudicious. Two days later Lord Pauncefote was informed that her majesty's government had decided to take no action. We, at the time, had no information of the attitude of the German government."

JUDGE HOLE OVERRULES THE MOTION TO QUASH

The Brookman Indictment Still Stands In Spite of the Alleged Defect.

DIVORCE SUITS SETTLED

Two From East Liverpool Have Been Dismissed at Cost of Plaintiffs.

VERDICT IN JOHN RUSSELL CASE

Suit for $1,560 Results in a Verdict for $675—Administrator Allowed to Settle for Coal Miner's Death. Minor Matters in Court.

Lisbon, February 15.—(Special)—The motion to quash the indictment for unlawful coercion against D. S. Brookman, manager of the Wellsville sheet mill, on account of improper endorsement by the foreman of the grand jury, was overruled by Judge Hole yesterday.

The contention of Brookman's attorneys was that the foreman must sign words printed on the back of the bill of indictment, to the effect that the bill was prepared after sworn testimony had been presented at the request of the prosecutor. While it might be considered secure if the foreman should sign at this place, still it has never been the custom with Columbian county grand jury foremen to do so.

It is not thought that Brookman's attorneys expected the indictment to be quashed on this account. Ex-Judge P. M. Smith, when asked Thursday evening if the Brookman case had come up, smiled and remarked: "Oh! well, the main question has not been raised, anyhow."

A motion filed by Attorney Metzger to quash the indictment against John B. Smith, of Salem, for defrauding a hotel keeper, was overruled. Metzger had raised the same question in the Brookman case.

It is probable that the Brookman case will be argued week after next.

J. W. Fenheiser, administrator of the estate of William T. Fenheiser, has petitioned the probate court to be allowed to settle for $550 with J. B. McNab for wrongfully causing the death of W. F. Fenheiser, who was killed in McNab's coal shaft. The administrator's request was granted.

Two divorce suits are reported settled and dismissed at the plaintiffs' cost. In both cases the charge was unfaithfulness. The actions were from East Liverpool and were filed by William H. Prout against Emma Prout and by Ernestine Giehlein against August Giehlein.

The sale of real estate in the case of William C. McIntosh versus William McBane, administrator of the McGillivray estate, has been confirmed. The sale was made to George H. Owen for $4,245.

William Swartz, guardian of John Russell, yesterday got a verdict against Alexander McBane, administrator of the estate of Christina McGillivray, late of East Liverpool, for $75.

John Russell, now 17 years old, for 78 months lived at the McGillivray home. The claim was that Russell was entitled to $20 a month above his board for labor on the farm. The entire claim was $1,560.

The suit brought by Alexander Forbes and James W. Dennis, of Wellsville, against Edward G. Whittacre has been settled and costs paid. Suit was brought for a balance due for the erection of a building in Wellsville.

ROSE FAVORS IT

Thinks the Move to Organize an Ohio Valley Baseball League Is the Proper Thing.

J. J. Rose, one of the managers of the local baseball team, stated today that while he had not yet received any proposition from Michael Hobright relative to the proposed Ohio Valley baseball league, he considered that it would be a wise move for the East Liverpool team to join it.

"It is a settled question in my mind," said Mr. Rose, "that greater interest much respect."

After Getting the Stone Ransom Will Allow Them to Escape.

Washington, Feb. 15.—(Special)—

The state department today received a cable message confirming the report that the ransom money for the release of Miss Stone had been paid.

The department, however, has not been advised when the release will occur, but it is understood that the brigands made a condition that they shall have a period of one week, which makes sure of their retreat to the mountains before the prisoner is delivered.

Knows What He Is Talking About.

This week's issue of the Sporting Life says: "Our East Liverpool correspondent, W. A. Calhoun, strongly recommends two local players. Outfielder Percy Rising and Dimmer Wheatley, pitcher and general player, as worthy of a trial by some good minor league club. Mr. Calhoun's judgment of ball players is entitled to the proper respect."

After remaining at that institution but a few months the boy ran away, but was soon located and taken back the second time. When another opportunity was afforded the dissatisfied lad again ran off, making his way to Minerva, where he hired to work for a farmer.

Fearing that if his whereabouts became known to the Fairmount some superintendent he would be taken

or head of by the workhouse officials.

He is a settled question in my mind," said Mr. Rose, "that greater interest much respect."

PROPOSED ROAD DOWN THE RIVER GOODWIN MATTER HAS BEEN SETTLED

A Pennsylvania Traction Company Intends to Reach Smith's Ferry.

PITTSBURG-WHEELING LINE MEETINGS OF IMPORTANCE

The Aim of Its Promoters—Monaca, Beaver & Smith's Ferry Electric Railway Chartered at Harrisburg. Former Project of the Kind.

A charter has been granted at Harrisburg to the Monaca, Beaver & Smith's Ferry Electric Railway company which has considerable importance attached to it. The new line is really an extension or will be, of the Coraopolis & Monaca Electric Railway company's line from its terminus at Monaca to Smith's Ferry, at the state line. At that point it is proposed to connect with the East Liverpool lines, and complete a through line from Pittsburgh to Wheeling. The new line will pass through Vanport. The incorporators include Joseph A. West, Beaver; Henry C. Fry, Rochester; H. W. Klein and E. E. Klein, Allegheny; J. Frank Peffer and William Beach, Pittsburgh.

It will be remembered that several years ago rights of way were secured from Vanport to a point near Smith's Ferry, by a company which proposed to build an electric line from Vanport to Smith's Ferry but this line would have connected with the Beaver Traction company lines had it been built.

The company applied for and was granted a charter under the laws of Pennsylvania, but nothing ever became of the project.

Aside from the construction of this new line from Monaca to Smith's Ferry, it is also proposed by this company to build a new bridge over the Ohio river from Rochester to Monaca over which cars of the new company will pass.

It has been known here for some time that the East Liverpool Railway company proposes to extend its line to Smith's Ferry, but work on this extension has been delayed on account of the severe cold weather.

The local companies secured right of way for practically the entire distance, and after the local line is completed to the eastern end of Smith's Ferry, a connection will be made with the proposed road. The portion between the west end of Wellsville and Empire will then be the only part of the line lacking to connect Pittsburgh and Wheeling.

Asks for Alimony.

Ellen C. Greenamyer, of Sebring, has filed suit for alimony against William H. Greenamyer. The wife makes some sensational charges in the petition. An injunction was allowed by Judge Robinson, of Youngstown, without bond, restraining the defendant from disposing of certain real estate until the case is heard.

Foden-Crofts.

Robert George Crofts, of Campus, O., and Miss Anna Foden, of this city, were married yesterday noon at the bride's home on Pleasant Heights by Rev. W. H. Gladden. A fine dinner was served after the ceremony.

The meeting of claymakers' local union No. 21, held Thursday evening,

In search of his father, whom he has not seen for almost four years, Harry Race, aged 16 years, arrived here from Minerva Thursday evening, only to find that his parent is a fugitive from justice, having escaped several months ago from the Canton workhouse, where he was sent by the mayor for an inhuman crime.

The boy has had a remarkable experience during his short life. When but a mere baby his mother died and he was adopted by a family living at Bellaire. Tiring of his new home, young Race ran away about three years ago, coming to this city, but later being taken in charge by the authorities and sent to the Fairmount children's home near Alliance.

After remaining at that institution but a few months the boy ran away, but was soon located and taken back the second time.

When another opportunity was afforded the dissatisfied lad again ran off, making his way to Minerva, where he hired to work for a farmer.

Fearing that if his whereabouts became known to the Fairmount some superintendent he would be taken

or head of by the workhouse officials.

EAST END

RIGHTS OF WAY

Are Being Diligently Sought By the Pennsylvania for Chester Branch Extension.

Within three weeks representatives of the real estate department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh are expected to arrive in the East End to purchase rights of way from East End people who own property in the vicinity of Shippingport. It is said the company has been offering from $100 to $150 an acre for rights of way through farms in this section, but it is likely that a higher price will be asked by these property owners. Messrs. McDole and Sample, who have charge of this work, are now stationed at Beaver, and have secured much property already.

The surveyors are still working on the proposed extension of the Chester and New Cumberland branch, and it is announced that their work will be completed within a few months.

GOSPEL MEETINGS

At the Second Presbyterian Church Continue to Be Full of Interest.

The gospel meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last night was largely attended and interesting. Rev. S. L. Boston preached an earnest and helpful sermon from the text, "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" Prof. Laughlin sang a beautiful solo and conducted the music in the service.

Prof. Laughlin will sing at both services tomorrow and will also have charge of the music at the meetings which will be held in the church every night next week.

BROKE HIS ARM

John Brandt, of the East End, Got a Hard Fall on the Ice.

John Brandt, a well known kilnman, residing in the East End, fell on the ice as he was going to his home yesterday afternoon, breaking his left arm near the elbow.

He will be unable to work for several weeks, and the injury is causing him much pain.

Revival Services Successful.

Another interesting revival service was held last evening at the Second M. E. church under the direction of Rev. G. W. Orcutt. The attendance was very large and several conversions were reported. The meetings will continue next week and longer if the interest continues. Some wonderful work is being done in the East End as a result of these meetings.

A Roof on Fire.

A small fire occurred in the East End, but luckily little damage resulted. Burning soot set fire to the roof of a house on Ohio avenue, owned by George Snowden, and occupied by Charles Ketcham, burning a hole in the roof. The fire department was called, and succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Added to the Library.

A book social was given last evening by the Young People's society of the Second U. P. church in the lecture room of the church. The affair was well attended and between 30 and 40 books were added to the already large library. During the evening a pumpkin pie and milk luncheon was served.

Street Railway Men's Meeting.

A special meeting of local No. 52, street railway employees, will be held in their hall in the East End this evening to make arrangements to attend the funeral of their late secretary, E. D. Griffith, who died last evening.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

In the Anglo-Jap Treaty, So the Russian Officials Believe.

RECEIVED OUR ASSURANCE

We Are Taking No Steps Against Russia, In China—if Peace Is Menaced, In Extreme Orient, Russia Will Protect Herself.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Russian officials view of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was communicated to the correspondent of the Associated Press, as follows:

"We accept the news of the treaty with the most complete equanimity and are very happy to ascertain that England and Japan are pledged to maintain the integrity of China and the independence of Corea, two principles which Russia was the first to establish as the basis of her foreign policy in the Orient. Russia would willingly have subscribed to the agreement in the preamble. The English-Japanese say their convention has only essentially pacific aims. This makes it all the more astonishing when they speak of war and coalitions. What power they have in view we cannot say. But, in any case, if peace is menaced in the extreme Orient, Russia, for her part, will not fail to take all the measures to safeguard her interests. All Russia's conventions with Japan have aimed at the preservation of the integrity of China and the independence of Corea, and it is true that Minister Kurino came to us immediately to communicate the text of the agreement and give the most amicable assurances. We have reason to believe it is not true that America, with which we remain in perfect accord, is a silent partner in the affair. We have given America positive assurances that Russia will do nothing which will disturb the interests of America in China. We do not believe America is anxious about the situation. Furthermore, we have received satisfactory assurance that America is not taking any steps against us in China."

John Shultz, a Polander, aged 23, employed on the Panhandle railroad wrecking crew at Steubenville, was run over by a train and had both his legs amputated below the knees. It is thought he will recover.

BETTER CABOOSSES

Will Soon Be a Feature on the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad.

An announcement made by an official of the C. & P. company will be gratifying news to the many conductors and brakemen in the employ of that company who live in Wellsville. Cabooses of the Pennsylvania company will be built after more improved designs in the future, looking to comfort and convenience of trainmen. They will be constructed longer, have ice boxes, lockers and other conveniences that will enable trainmen to live better while on the road.

The principal feature of the new cars will be their length, the dimensions providing for ample room for all the crew. The cars are to be fitted up in more attractive style and much of the crude work which now renders the interior of the caboose very monotonous will be relieved by comparatively artistic decorations.

AMERICAN DESERTER KILLED IN FIGHT ON SAMAR

Manila, Feb. 15.—The Panay scouts, under the command of Captain Walker, in an engagement in the island of Samar, recently, captured seven rifles and numerous bolos, killed a number of Filipinos and also killed the officer in command, who was a notorious renegade, named Winfrey, a deserted from the Forty-third regiment, whom the American troops had for months been endeavoring to capture. A man named Long, who deserted with Winfrey, is still operating with the Filipinos.

A great deal of good is being done in all parts of the country by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good work, of aggravating and persistent coughs that have yielded to its soothing effects, of severe colds that have been broken up by its use, of threatened attacks of pneumonia that have been warded off and of dangerous cases of croup that it has cured. The great popularity and extensive sale of this preparation can not be a surprise to anyone who is acquainted with its good qualities. Use it when you have need of such a remedy and it will do you good. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the most severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible. If not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Charles F. Craig's, Fouts Bldg., East Liverpool, O.

NASAL CATARRH CURED

Pe-ru-na Cures a Case of Five Years' Standing.

Hon. Rudolph M. Patterson, a well-known lawyer of Chicago, Ill., writes the following letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., at Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen— "I have been a sufferer from nasal catarrh for the past five years, and at the earnest solicitation of a friend I tried Peruna and am glad to say it has afforded a complete cure. It is with pleasure I recommend it to others."—RUDOLPH M. PATTERSON.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of 38 West 117th street, New York City, writes:

"I can honestly recommend Peruna as a great catarrh remedy. It heals and heals quickly and permanently."

"This is simply the whole story in a word. I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold and Peruna cured me. It is indeed a great medicine, and worthy the highest praise, for it is reliable and will never disappoint you."—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

There are two things that the whole medical profession agree about concerning catarrh. The first is that catarrh is the most prevalent and omnipresent disease to which the people in the United States are subject. All classes of people have it. Those who stay indoors much and those who go outdoors much. Working classes have it and sedentary classes have it.

The doctor finds catarrh to be his constant and ever-present foe. It complicates nearly every disease he is called upon to treat.

The second thing about catarrh on which all doctors agree, is that it is difficult to cure it. Local remedies may give relief but they fail to cure permanently. Sprays or snuffs amount to little or nothing except to give temporary relief.

Catarrh is frequently located in internal organs which cannot be reached by any sort of local treatment. All this is known by every physician.

To devise some systemic internal remedy which would reach catarrh at its source, to eradicate it permanently from the system—this has been the desire of the medical profession for a long time. Forty years ago Dr. Hartman confronted this problem. He believed then that he had solved it. He still believes he has solved it. He cures thousands of people annually. During all these years Peruna has been the remedy upon which he has relied.

It was at first a private prescription, afterwards manufactured expressly for him in large quantities. This remedy, Peruna, is now to be found in every drugstore and nearly every home in the land. It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

Mr. Camillus Senne, 257 West 129th street, New York, writes:

"I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Peruna.

Mr. Camillus Senne.

"I read of Peruna in your almanac, and wrote for it. I followed. After taking one and one-half bottles of Peruna I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peruna to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal troubles."—Camillus Senne.

A course of Peruna never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peruna. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

The house of representatives the other day unanimously passed a resolution in favor of a constitutional amendment permitting the election of United States senators by popular vote. In so voting the house voiced the sentiments of the people. It is time the senate began to view the question seriously, and to recognize the fact that the people will not forever submit to having their wishes ignored.

Three American-born women will be participants in the English coronation ceremonies. They are the Countess Craven, the Duchess of Marlborough and the Duchess of Manchester. Some of their sisters on this side of the water may be foolish enough to envy them their titled privileges. But there is no prouder title or greater privilege than that of being an American girl.

Questions of social precedence are vexing Chicago, for the first time in her history. Now that Prince Henry is to visit them, the natives are sorely puzzled to know whether royal practice is to receive brewers or pork packers next after the mayor and aldermen, and their alarm lest they make themselves ridiculous is really comic.

The bill before the Ohio legislature to give street railway employees police powers is raising a storm of protest among people who think the traction companies have as many privileges as they are entitled to and after they get their own policemen will want their own justices of the peace and other civil officers.

Democratic congressmen are certainly in desperate straits for material for fault-finding when they attempt to hold the Republican party responsible for what England did in the revolutionary war. That is the sense of Representative Wheeler's speech, if there was sense in it, which is problematical.

Several neighboring cities are getting some political excitement out of the fact that women are campaigning for membership on the board of education. East Liverpool ladies appear satisfied that the political battles will be well fought and nobly won without their assistance.

American bequests to educational and philanthropic institutions from 1893 to 1901, both inclusive, amounted to $421,410,000, and of this vast sum $107,300,000 was given last year. The spirit of individual philanthropy grows constantly.

Carnegie says a navy is unnecessary for this nation. That may be the case at the present moment, but how was it when Dewey sailed into Manila bay? A navy is kept for emergencies, not for constant use.

Nine men lost their lives and others were injured in a battle in Kentucky the other day. As no feud was at the bottom of the trouble the occurrence is so unusual as to attract attention, even in Kentucky.

The Commoner may be a howling success, but Colonel Bryan needs to be reminded that all precedent is against the election of the editor of a weekly newspaper to the presidency.

OBITUARY

E. D. Griffith.

E. D. Griffith, aged 30 years, died at his new home on Pennsylvania avenue at 9:40 o'clock last evening of heart failure. The arrangements for the funeral services have not been completed, although it may be the services will be held at his late home tomorrow afternoon and the remains taken to Zanesville for interment Monday morning.

Mr. Griffith was brought up at Zanesville and before he came to Wellsville he was employed by the J. B. Owens Pottery company, of Zanesville, as a salesman. He left that company and came to Wellsville several years ago, where he was employed in one of the potteries. He soon came to this city and on May 1, 1898, he was given a position as motorman on the East Liverpool street railway. He worked in this capacity until January 1, last year, when he became a conductor. On May 30, 1900, he was married to Miss Effie Owings, one of the most popular young ladies of the East End. The wedding took place at Beaver, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. R. Greene, then pastor of the Second U. P. church, of which Mr. Griffith was a member. Just two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Griffith moved into their new home on Pennsylvania avenue. It is said that while he was working about his new home he contracted a severe cold which resulted in typhoid pneumonia. About 10 days ago he became so weak that death was caused by heart failure.

Mr. Griffith was a staunch labor advocate and has served as secretary of Local No. 52, A. A. S. R. E. of A., and has represented this local in Trades and Labor Council for several terms, holding a seat there at the time of his death.

Mrs. Mary E. Cathon.

Mrs. Mary E. Cathon, aged 59 years, died at her home at Alliance last evening at 5 o'clock, of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being made at the Alliance cemetery. She was born at Belleville, Pa., in 1842, and was a sister of C. N. Everson, of this city.

HIRING EXTRA EMPLOYEES.

Committee to Investigate Their Employment in Senate.

Washington, Feb. 15.—A little flurry was created in the senate yesterday over the employment, since the beginning of the session, of a score or more of extra clerks and messengers to committees. The charges of extravagance made induced the reference of the whole subject of clerical employment to a committee for investigation and report.

The bill creating a permanent census office was under consideration for a time, but was not disposed of finally. After the passage of a large number of private pension bills, the senate eulogized the life and character of the late Representative Brosius, of Pennsylvania.

SOME NEWS IN BRIEF.

The street car line between New Castle, Pa., and Lowellville will be thrown open for travel Sunday. Cars between the two towns will be run every hour, and the fare has been fixed at 30 cents for one way, which is half the cost of traveling on steam cars.

GOODWIN MATTER

last meeting, and with but a single exception every member had some part in the discussion. It is the intention of the officers of No. 21 to make a thorough canvass of the city with a view to having every clay maker in the jurisdiction of the union to affiliate with it. Several applications for membership are now pending, action upon which will be taken early in March.

Although nothing has been said about the matter for several weeks, the kiln firemen have by no means dropped the idea of forming a local to be affiliated with the N. B. of O. P. During the past week the matter has been talked over by a number of firemen, and the next move to be made by them will be to make a canvass of the trade to ascertain how many of the craft are willing to become members of such an organization. It has been proposed to hold a meeting within a few days to talk over the project, but this matter will be determined likely next week.

Kilnmen's local No. 9 met last evening, between 150 and 200 kilnmen being present. It was decided to open nominations for delegates to the next convention, February 28. A resolution was passed to be forwarded to congress, relative to the immigration bill, asking that the new bill prohibit the entrance of any foreigner who is unable to read the English language. Two new members were obligated and one application for membership received.

Shipments of ware from this city last month were not as large as during the corresponding month one year ago. While it is well understood that a large amount of ware was sent out from the local potteries, the total shipments fell off about 1,000 pounds, when compared with last year's business. So far this month there has been a slight increase in the shipments.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 met last night and decided to consider the proposition to increase the pay of the convention delegates February 28. Two new members were obligated and the social committee reported that arrangements were being made to give another social.

Dippers' local No. 18 has decided to open nominations for convention delegates next Friday evening. It has been decided that these delegates receive $5 a day while at Trenton. A vote of thanks was tendered those who assisted the local at their recent social.

Robert Johnson, of Johnson Brothers, and Mr. Grindley, of Grindley & Co., extensive pottery manufacturers of England, with their American representative, George Jones, Thursday made a visit to Trenton and visited the Maddock pottery and the Cook pottery.

Miss Sallie Greenwood, forewoman of the biscuit warehouse girls of the Union, will take her crew and go to Brunt's Monday. Miss Della Dugan, of the dipping house of the Union, will take the place of Miss Greenwood, but she has not yet secured a crew.

Owing to the severe weather all work has been stopped indefinitely on the new supply works that will be erected in Pink alley. Everything is in readiness to begin remodeling the old electric light plant building as soon as the weather will permit.

The contract has been let for the machinery that will equip the Laughlin No. 3, and the work is now ready for delivery. As soon as the structural work is completed the machinery is to be delivered. The lathes for this pottery are about completed.

Cartwrights shipped a car load of ware to Memphis, Tenn., yesterday. Another car will be shipped by this firm Monday to Nebraska, City, Neb., containing 18 No. 1 and 14 No. 2 casks filled with nothing but oat meals.

Kilnsheds and kilns are being whitewashed at the Sevres. The work is being done with a sprayer, and only two men are engaged at the task. The kiln shed presents a very clean appearance.

Miss Mary Saxton, employed in the dipping house at the Laughlin No. 1 has resigned her position on account of ill health. Her place will be filled by Ruth Fletcher.

Smith McDole, sticker-up for the big jigger at the East Liverpool, has been off duty for a week. He will return to work Monday morning.

W. M. Grise, a packer at the Cartwright pottery, is ill at his home on Trentvale street with pneumonia.

Announcement has been made that the Diamond has enough orders booked to keep that factory in steady operation for some time.

There is shortage of biscuit warehouse girls in a number of the hill potteries.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Mrs. Hollinger is visiting at the home of Mrs. John Elliott, at Sebring.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor, of Chester, left for Sebring this morning to visit relatives.

Miss Maude Carman, a teacher in the Horace Mann building, is absent from her home by reason of illness.

Geo. H. Owen and J. S. Hilbert returned this morning after attending a convention of insurance men at Columbus.

Miss Hull, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. W. Healy, of Thompson avenue, has returned to her home in Scranton.

Miss Eliza Cartwright left yesterday for Pittsburgh, to attend the luncheon given by her sister, Mrs. Simon R. Huss, today.

Mrs. Goppert, who resides in Chester, has been very ill for several days. She is quite old and it is feared she cannot recover.

Mrs. George C. Kell and his son Lawrence left this morning for Zanesville, where they will visit Mr. Kell for several weeks.

Grant McGrew, of Smith's Ferry, who has been visiting a sick relative at Steubenville for a week, returned home last evening.

Alvin Huff and Roy Rinehart went to Steubenville yesterday afternoon and will bring back with them a driving horse purchased some time ago.

Miss Della Schmutz, after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. William Heath, and family, has returned to her home in Farmersville, O., accompanied by her niece, Miss Anna, who will spend the summer with her grandparents.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 met last night and decided to consider the proposition to increase the pay of the convention delegates February 28. Two new members were obligated and the social committee reported that arrangements were being made to give another social.

Humor, which has thus far been the key note of the season in New York as well as elsewhere throughout the country in theatrical circles, will be served to the patrons of the opera house Tuesday evening. "The Brixton Burglary," which is considered to be the best laughing vehicle since "Charlie's Aunt," will be the medium. While the name suggests old-fashioned melodrama, the play is a three-act rollicking farce with scarcely a serious moment. The farce will be presented here with what is considered the most expensive comedy cast on the road this season.

Mr. Tim Murphy will be seen at the opera house next Wednesday night on which occasion he will present here for the first time a new play of Washington life, "A Capitol Comedy," by Paul Wistach. This one of the most successful American plays of this decade, and stands as the first drama on life in the national capitol which has received general admiration since "The Senator" and "A Texas Steer" made a standard which playwrights have found difficulty in approaching.

"The Game Keeper," with a wealth of beautiful scenery and a strong company of artists with Smith O'Brien at the head, will be seen at the opera house Monday night. The play was first produced last year. It proved to be an artistic and financial success for its owners, and this year it is being produced on a large and magnificent scale. Mr. O'Brien says he has the strongest supporting company he has ever had.

GOOD OIL WELLS

The Prospect For Several Excellent Producers Is Now Most Promising.

A. V. Smith the oil well driller, when seen by a reporter stated that the outlook for an immense production of oil in the Carson region is very encouraging. He had the following to say of the wells in that region:

"The La Compte and company, well No. 1, on the Carson farm was drilled in and shot on Wednesday and is now producing 60 barrels per day. The Murray Miller, No. 6, was also drilled in and shot and will be a 40 barrel producer. Their No. 5 well is drilling, but may not be shot for a week or more. The James Ramsey No. 1 is drilling as is the Bell No. 1. The Le Compte No. 2 will be drilled this week and in a few days drilling will be commenced on the John R. Scott farm, as two new rigs are being placed in position."

MAY CONTEST IT

Certain Second Warders Dispute the Regularity of a Recent Caucus.

Among a few of the Second ward Republicans there is objection raised to the election of the three central committeemen, E. C. Taylor, J. W. McQueen and John Duncan, who were chosen at a caucus held in the city hall last Saturday evening. It is alleged by some that the three were the only representatives present at the caucus.

This charge has been openly uttered by R. B. Appel and he has interested a few of his friends to such an extent that measures may be taken to have the election pronounced invalid by the present committeemen at a special meeting tonight. The elected committeemen say that they can prove that there were at least a dozen Republicans at the caucus.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

Held a Largely Attended And Most Interesting Meeting Yesterday.

The Twentieth Century club held a most interesting meeting at Mrs. G. L. Howe's on Front street yesterday afternoon. Nearly the full membership was present and a very pleasing program was rendered. It follows:

Quotations from Whittier, by each member of the club; paper, "Influence of English Literature on Americans," Mrs. Laverty; paper, "Kansas-Nebraska Bill," Mrs. Butler; paper, "Causes Which Led to the Civil War," Mrs. Armstrong; paper, "The Effect of Slavery on the United States," Mrs. Wells; select reading, extra from Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Mrs. Smith.

The meeting was led by Mrs. R. A. Noble. Miss Mary Smith was selected to represent the club at the Woman's club convention, which is to be held at Los Angeles, Cal., during the month of May.

BRICKLAYERS' MEETING

Delegate Stevenson Reports a Successful Convention in Cleveland.

Charles Stevenson returned last evening from Cleveland, where he attended the annual meeting of the Bricklayers' association. The meeting was held in the Hotel Hollender and there were 460 members present. Business of great importance to the bricklayers throughout the United States was transacted.

The banquet which followed the business meeting was most elaborate and enjoyable. All of the members were given souvenir spoons, which are beautifully designed.

VALENTINE PARTY

An Enjoyable Affair at the Home of Miss Helen Bailey Last Night.

Miss Helen Bailey at her home on Center street was pleasantly surprised last evening by a valentine party arranged by a number of her friends. They arrived at an early hour and played many games appropriate for the 14th of February, after which a choice luncheon was enjoyed.

Those present were: Misses Mary Blue, Georgia Paul, Edith Purdue, Maude Thomas and Lulu Turner and Messrs. John Tomlinson, Reed Ashbaugh, Robert Morrow and George Rigby, of East Liverpool.

UPSET A TEA KETTLE

A West End Baby Badly Scalded on Its Hands And Face.

Harry, a two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jacobs, West End, yesterday afternoon was playing in the kitchen near a stove and fell against a tea kettle filled with boiling water.

A large quantity of water spurted out on his hands and face, burning them quite severely. It is feared that the child's face may be permanently disfigured.

Bowlers Did Not Come.

The local bowling fans were much disappointed at the non-appearance of the St. Benet's team last evening. The captain of the team telephoned that two of his men found it impossible to come, but would do so next week. A game was arranged for Tuesday evening. The Lisbon boys will be in tonight and an interesting game is expected.

Frank Rue's Father Dead.

Frank Rue left this morning for Bristol, Pa., to attend the funeral of his father, who died Thursday night. The deceased was 69 years of age and had only been ill a short time. He is survived by two sons, Frank and Dyke Rue, of this city, and one

WIDOW MURDERED:

POLICE DETAINED SON.

New York, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Kate Voepel, a widow, was murdered in her apartments, in Christopher street.

She was found dead by her young son. There were 18 knife thrusts in her body, and a disordered, blood-marked room told of a desperate struggle before the woman gave up.

The police detained the son, but have little reason to suspect him, and have so far been unable to fathom the case. Robbery was evidently not the motive, for a large diamond ring was left untouched on the body.

Insurance which insures only at the end of a law suit is dear at any price.

You Do Not Want a Policy Like This!

That does not grow in value. That pays weekly indemnity for only 52 weeks or 104 weeks against our 200 weeks.

That pays only one-half its face value if you become permanently disabled.

That provides for the deduction of any weekly indemnity paid within twelve months, in making settlement for a death loss.

That pays only about one-tenth its face value for the loss of an eye.

It is not the Amount of Money you spend for Insurance, but it is the Amount of Insurance you get for your money that tells.

CHAPTER XIX.—Continued.

And be thrust Blair into the office, practically carrying the man at arm's length. Utterly insane with the fear of death, Blair struck at his captor vainly and screamed like a child.

Elmendorf was struggling to his feet as they entered, and Alden uttered a cry at the sight of him.

"Did he do this?" he exclaimed, pointing at Blair, whom he had released.

Elmendorf pressed his hand upon his hair, which was wet with blood.

"Yes," he said hoarsely; "this—and the other?"

Alden paused an instant, the strength of his body gathering for effort. Then he leaped forward and seemed to pass half through, half over, the body of Blair, as if it had been a ghost in garments. Turning, he saw Blair lying upon the floor, his limbs contorted, his face bearing the unmistakable stamp of death.

Elmendorf staggered forward and knelt beside the body.

"We're going to keep her secret," he said. "Her name must not appear in this. We must see what the man has in his pockets and in the room. Some of these fellows make strange memorandum."

"Brenda has told me the story," said Alden. "It could not be concealed. In fact, I had got so much from the nurse you bribed that the remainder mattered little. And this man was her husband, this cowardly wretch, this assassin of women!"

"He was also an inventor of women," said Elmendorf. "And I never knew a swindler trick."

"Do you mean that he lied about seeing one?"

"There was no mysterious woman in the case," replied Elmendorf. "It was a pure fiction and worthy of its author. He was clever, and for thoroughgoing scoundrel—Hello! What's this?"

He had drawn a sheet of paper from Blair's pocket, and after a glance at it he handed it to Alden, who read that Arthur Gordon Blair and Joseph Neale, captain of police, were equal partners.

CHAPTER XX.

THE ONLY THING THAT MATTERS.

THE document appeared to possess the power of a spell, for while Alden held it in his hands he heard one heavy blow upon the door, and then Neale strode into the room.

"What's this?" he demanded. "Elmendorf, didn't I tell you to let this man alone?"

"I'll let him alone now, captain," said Elmendorf. "You can bury him. And see that you bury everything else too. This whole case is on the quiet. I can steer things at headquarters with a little money, Mr. Alden, and Joe Neale must take care of the precinct. This is a mysterious suicide, Neale; due probably to financial trouble or ill health. It has no relation to the case of Miss Miller."

"Since when did I take orders from you?" cried Neale.

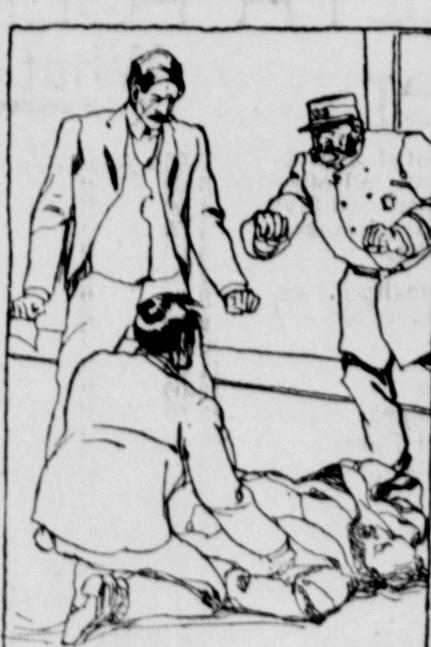

"Since I got hold of this," replied Elmendorf, showing the partnership agreement. "I know the whole game, Neale, and you can't stand it just now."

"I think you can," said Kendall—"now."

And with the last word he looked at Brenda. Alden understood.

"I shall be all you wish me to be," he said.

So they went to Elsie's room, Alden lingering until the way was prepared for him. He entered smiling and handsome in the way of the days before. He knelt down beside Elsie's bed and in the gentlest way let her know that her secret had come into his keeping and that he had forgotten it again. Then he told her that she was free, but not with any words to picture the horror of the last scene. The man had died by his own hand, as it was best he should.

"What's this?" he demanded.

"But still this story, Clarence—think of it!" she said. "It is bound to be told."

"My child," said he gently, "if you are my wife and are received by the MacLaines and a few other people whom I know—"

"Including the Kendalls," said Brenda. "Don't forget them."

"No," said the doctor, "that wouldn't do at all. Why, a dozen years ago, when the phrase 'the Four Hundred' was first heard, an old dowager of my tribe protested against it. 'Four hundred indeed!' cried she. 'Why, there are more than 400 Kendalls!' So so.

CURES RHEUMATISM.

Stops the Pain and Reduces Swelling Almost Instantly.

Blood Wine Goes About It In A Different Way—Begins at the Bottom—Removes the Cause.

"Blood Wine" cures Rheumatism and cures it quickly, thoroughly and permanently. It cures neuralgia, and all forms of aches and pains. Is not Rheumatism caused by uric acid in the blood? This everybody knows. To treat it you must have something to work directly on the blood, to filter it, cleanse and purify it, drive the uric acid out of it and make it so healthy that it or any other foreign matter will not return again.

"Blood Wine" is a powerful blood remedy, hence an effective rheumatic cure. It contains no wine or opiates, but medicine of most extraordinary value. For Rheumatism "Blood Wine" never fails.

Mrs. T. Foster of Salem St., Providence, R. I., was saved from a life of suffering, and given back her health by using "Blood Wine." She says:

"I have used six bottles of 'Blood Wine' for rheumatism and backache, and feel it my duty to let you know what your medicine has done for me. I am completely cured and owe my recovery wholly to your 'Blood Wine.'"

Grateful people will talk.

Tell their experience for the public good.

East Liverpool citizens praise Doan's Kidney Pills.

Kidney sufferers appreciate this.
They find relief for every kidney ill.

Read what this citizen says:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, paster at the D. E. McNicol pottery, and resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years of '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals
I had an aching pain across the small of my back, and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly.
They gave me almost immediate relief and warded off the last attack."

honor the memory of departed loved ones with a handsome monument, but the high prices demanded by the local monument dealers prevent them.

We sell and deliver fine monuments or headstones at much lower prices than the others can be obtained for anywhere.

Most of your local monument dealers work by expensive hand methods, while our work is done by the most improved labor saving machinery. Machine work not only lessens the cost of the monument, but insures better results as the moldings, letters, etc., are cut much deeper and smoother than by hand and therefore show plainer.

The stone we use is the very best—will not rust, discolor or become streaked as most granites do.

We sell to monument dealers wholesale and also sell direct to the individual buyer, delivering completely in the cemetery.

Our handsome booklet with designs explains all. It's free if you mention this paper.
